Short Fat Chick in Paris Kerre Woodham, Gareth Brown, 2010-11-01. A book for chicks of all ages who sometimes get it wrong but keep on trying anyway. When celebrity broadcaster and columnist Kerre Woodham became the Short Fat Chick who runs marathons, she changed lives. Hugely successful, her first book is now followed by a funny, inspiring and devastatingly honest continuation of her personal story. This time Kerre shares more of her physical and emotional journey through a life lived out loud: the highs and lows of a woman who has privately battled flab, the piss fairy and depression behind a public life of glitz and glamour. After the euphoria of the New York Marathon, Kerre set her sights on London and failed miserably. Did that stop her? Hell no! With training and personal weight loss programmes designed for her by long-term trainer, friend and co-author Gareth aka Gaz Brown, the Short Fat Chick decided to go French. With a group of friends and fellow runners, Kerre went to Paris: nothing will ever be the same.

The Fitness Instinct Peg Jordan, 2000-10. Glistening hard bodies strut their stuff on magazine covers, billboards and television shows, writes Peg Jordan. Every time we stare, our shoulders slump, our bellies feel soft and we grow a little more disappointed, thinking that fitness is something that's beyond our reach. What a mess! Of course we don't realize that the gorgeous photo of that fitness celebrity is the result of 1 000 worth of airbrushing. Jordan, respected fitness expert and editor of American Fitness magazine, set out to discover why 80 percent of us don't exercise and what works to get us moving. Jordan interviewed 400 formerly inactive people who had become active. She also studied both current research and movement styles of ancient cultures. In The Fitness Instinct, she puts it all together with an innovative 11-step method to get you exercising and loving it. The point is not to force yourself to do the trendy exercise of the day or join the flashy gym downtown; in fact, not to force yourself at all, but rather to tap into your seventh sense, your natural instinct for movement, which once awakened will guide your every stretch, run, jump, dance, pushup and crunch, and help you develop your own personalized program of holistic fitness. A tall order, but Jordan delivers what others only promise. Your movement choices have to match your personality, for example, and she shows you how to figure out whether you're a racer, stroller, dancer, or trekker and then which kinds of movement and times of day are best for you. Besides the big picture of finding the exerciser within you, Jordan addresses how to avoid being scammed by product promises, myths, and quick fixes. Joan Price
