

Bilitis

Music by Francis Lai

Moderately slow $\text{♩} = 46$

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a whole rest in each of the four measures. The middle and bottom staves are grouped as a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The middle staff contains a continuous eighth-note melody in the right hand, while the bottom staff contains a simple bass line with long notes and ties.

The second system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with the instruction Orchestra - Solo throughout written below it. It contains a melody with some rests. The middle and bottom staves are grouped as a grand staff, continuing the piano accompaniment from the first system.

The third system of the musical score consists of three staves, continuing the piano accompaniment from the previous systems. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a melody, and the middle and bottom staves are grouped as a grand staff.
