Catholicism Christ And The Common Destiny Of Man:

Catholicisme Henri de Lubac,1988 Here Henri de Lubac gathers from throughout the breadth and length of Catholic tradition elements which he synthesizes to show the essentially social and historical character of the Catholic Church and how this worldwide and age-long dimension of the Church is the only adequate matrix for the fulfillment of the person within society and the transcendence of the person towards God

Principles of Catholic Theology Thomas Joseph White,2023 In the Nicene Creed Christians profess belief in the Church one holy catholic and apostolic The Church is also called the mystical body of Christ and the bride of Christ What is the Church and how can we understand her mystery in light of the mystery of Christ

Principles of Catholic Theology Book 4 explores Catholic ecclesiology and the theology of the Virgin Mary as an exemplar of the Church's life It also considers the people of Israel in light of the Church and Christ The second half of the book considers human nature in light of the grace of Christ and ecclesial humanity so as to consider thematic and universal relations of grace to human nature Major controversies are addressed such as the natural desire to see God and the Thomistic understanding of election and predestination Effectively this volume seeks to receive and interpret the teaching of the Second Vatican Council Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium within the Thomistic theological tradition and in light of that tradition

Principles of Catholic Theology Book 4 is a continuation of Fr Thomas Joseph White's collection of essays extending over a range of fundamental topics in Catholic dogmatic theology

Cwiekowski, 2018-04-23 The historical context in which theological understandings have developed play an important role in our understanding of the modern church In this book Sulpician priest and scholar Frederick J Cwiekowski traces the theology of the church beginning with the community of disciples during Jesus ministry and the New Testament era He continues through the various periods of history highlighting events from both the East and West including the remarkable developments surrounding the Second Vatican Council the post conciliar period and today s pontificate of Pope Francis With this book intended for general readers and students of theology Cwiekowski hopes to promote an appreciation of the mystery that is the church

The Rite of Christian Initiation Peter McGrail, 2016-02-17 In the wake of recent papal legislation the various liturgies of the Roman Rite may today be celebrated in either their post Tridentine or post Vatican II forms Whilst much discussion of this new situation focuses on purely liturgical issues this book breaks new ground by arguing that the coexistence of the two forms raises questions of a profoundly ecclesiological character Peter McGrail explores the relationship between ritual form ecclesial self understanding and constructs of the world that are at play as adults become members of the Church Analysing the rites by which adults were taken into the Church for three and a half centuries this book goes on to explore attempts to find a new ritual expression for the journey to Christian Initiation set against the divergent and even conflicting ecclesiologies which were at play before and during the Council

The Splendor of the Church in Mary Theresa Marie Chau Nguyen, 2023-05-05 Henri de Lubac SJ 1896 1991 is one of the most renowned theologians of the twentieth century Numerous studies have been undertaken to examine his many contributions to theology but little attention has been paid to the specific topic of the relationship of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Church in his writings This was a topic that gave rise to contentious discussion at the Second Vatican Council and although the Council fathers approved the integration of Marian doctrine into the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church this synthesis of Mariology and ecclesiology has been largely neglected in theology today The Splendor of the Church in Mary retrieves de Lubac s Marian ecclesiology and revives an understanding and appreciation of its enduring influence at the Vatican Council and beyond The first part examines de Lubac s pre conciliar works which evince a steady biblical and patristic ressourcement of Marian themes It also explores his writings on Teilhard de Chardin s Eternal Feminine Christian mysticism and Amida Buddhism and discovers in them the essential building blocks of his Marian thought The second part turns to the Second Vatican Council and post conciliar developments Rereading the debates and texts of Lumen Gentium through a Marian lens brings to light the extent of de Lubac s influence Méditation sur l'Eglise 1953 his principal work on Mary and the Church anticipated the structure and content of Lumen Gentium a decade before the Council De Lubac s writings provided a theological compass for the Council fathers and they continue to provide direction and orientation for ecclesiological discourse today The Splendor of the Church in Mary culminates in a constructive analysis of one of the most pressing

Work of Thomas Aquinas Harm Goris, 2009 The terms transcendence and immanence are often used casually and as self evident The spatial imagery contained in their meaning determines the way they are understood and used as opposites like there and here As a consequence the two concepts are seen as mutually exclusive when applied to God s being and to his activity and presence in our world and in our history This view on the relationship between God and world is characteristic not only of deism and pantheism but also of theism However in the view of Thomas Aquinas such an opposition cannot adequately capture the central tenets of the Christian faith This book explores Aquinas thought on transcendence and immanence in his discussions of creation analogy the Trinity grace and Christ and offers interpretations in which God s transcendence and his immanence do not exclude but imply one another br The papers contained in this volume were originally presented at the third international conference of the Thomas Instituut at Utrecht in 2005 Catholic World ,1918
