

CBSE Class 10 English First Flight The Proposal Summary & Notes

Summary of The Proposal

The chapter 'The Proposal' is a comedy drama that is based on the tenderness of two people who are in love. It is a play by Nikolai Gogol. The play is set in a town where a man and a woman are in love. The man is a lawyer and the woman is a girl. They are both very poor and they are struggling to get by. The man has a job as a lawyer and he is trying to make some money. The woman is a girl who is very beautiful and she is very kind. They are both very much in love and they are trying to get married. But there are some problems. The man's father is a very rich man and he is very strict. He does not want his son to marry a poor girl. The man's father is very angry with his son and he is trying to stop him from getting married. The man is very sad and he is trying to find a way to get his father's approval. The woman is also very sad and she is trying to find a way to get the man's father's approval. In the end, the man and the woman get married and they are very happy. The play is a comedy because it is about a man and a woman who are in love and they are trying to get married. It is a comedy because it is about a man and a woman who are very poor and they are struggling to get by.
