

SACN draft carbohydrates and health report - scientific consultation

Response from ENSA, European Natural Soyfoods Manufacturers Association, August 2014

ENSA welcomes the opportunity to comment on the draft carbohydrates and health report, which begins its consultation with the September 1st 2014.

ENSA would like to highlight its concerns regarding the exclusion for lactose from milk and milk products in the setting of intake recommendations of sugars, both an exclusion that directly and indirectly lead to misinformation and discrimination for food products which are nutritionally equivalent to milk and milk products, such as soy drinks and other products.
