The musical score is written in G major, 4/4 time, and consists of four systems. Each system has a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a bass clef staff. The first system starts with a 'NC' (Noclap) instruction. The second system begins with a G6 chord. The third system begins with an Am7b9 chord. The fourth system begins with a B7 chord. Chord changes are indicated by letters above the notes in the treble staff.

characterized as a uniquely American form of artistic expression and narratives of its history are almost always set within the United States Yet from its inception this art form exploded beyond national borders becoming one of the first modern examples of a global music sensation Jazz Planet collects essays that concentrate for the first time on jazz created outside the United States What happened when this phenomenon met with indigenous musical practices What debates on cultural integrity did this American styling provoke in far flung places Did jazz s insistence on individual innovation and its posture as a music of the disadvantaged generate shakeups in national identity aesthetic values and public morality Through new and previously published essays Jazz Planet recounts the music s fascinating journeys to Asia Europe Africa and Latin America What emerges is a concept of jazz as a harbinger of current globalization a process that has engendered both hope for a more enlightened and tranquil future and resistance to the anticipated loss of national identity and sovereignty Essays in this collection describe the seldom acknowledged contributions non Americans have made to the art and explore the social and ideological crises jazz initiated around the globe Was the rise of jazz in global prominence they ask simply a result of its inherent charm Was it a vehicle for colonialism Cold War politics and emerging American hegemony Jazz Planet provokes readers to question the nationalistic bias of most jazz scholarship and to expand the pantheon of great jazz artists to include innovative musicians who blazed independent paths
