Directions: Complete the following sentences by selecting the correct or academic vocabulary term that best fits. You may need to change the form of the words in the brackets. Not all terms will be used.

1. During the war, there were few great adventures, but it was an exciting and dangerous. In the early 1900s, the city was filled with excitement and activity. The British army of impressment included the recruitment of U.S. ships.
2. The British army of impressment included the recruitment of U.S. ships. Jefferson opposed the policy that sent U.S. ships to the British army of impressment because he felt that the British army of impressment was an infringement on the rights of the U.S. citizens and that it was an infringement on the rights of the U.S. citizens.
3. Jefferson believed in a small, limited federal government. Although the government had the power to regulate commerce and foreign trade, Jefferson opposed the idea of an expanding federal government because he felt that it was an infringement on the rights of the U.S. citizens.
4. According to the Declaration of Independence, the rights of the U.S. citizens are unalienable. The Declaration of the Independence is an important document in the history of the U.S. because it declares the rights of the U.S. citizens and that the government is to protect these rights.
5. Some people believe that the rights of the U.S. citizens are unalienable. Others believe that the rights of the U.S. citizens are not unalienable.
