Faster James Gleick, 1999 Synchronize your watches We have reached the epoch of the nanosecond This is the heyday of speed If one quality defines our modern technocratic age it is acceleration We are making haste Our computers our movies our sex lives our prayers they all run faster now than ever before And the more we fill our lives with time saving devices and time saving strategies the more rushed we feel In Faster James Gleick explores nothing less than the human condition at the turn of the millennium He shines a light of enterprising and analytical reporting as well as sly wit on the newest paradoxes of time His journey takes us through the bunkers and trenches of a war we barely knew we were fighting to the atomic clocks of the Directorate of Time to the waiting rooms that focus our impatience to the film production studios that test the high speed limits of our perception to the air traffic command centers that give time pressure new meaning We have become a quick reflexed multitasking channel flipping fast forwarding species We don't completely understand it and we're not altogether happy about it Faster is a mirror held up to our times and a mordant reminder of why some things take time Faster James Gleick, 2000-07-06 Fast Media, Media Fast Thomas W.
