Paths Made by Walking Amina Tawasil,2024-09-03 What can women s scholastic pursuits tell us about what building an Islamic state looks like for women who are loyal to its project And what can an ethnographic study of women who are using Islamic education to transform their conditions in Iran teach us about our own humanity Paths Made by Walking provides insight into these questions by examining how Iranian women have participated in Islamic education since the 1979 revolution This groundbreaking ethnography on Iranian howzevi seminarian women reveals how ideologies of womanhood institutions and Islamic practices have played a pivotal role in religiously conservative women s mobility in the Middle East Applying over a year of ethnographic fieldwork Amina Tawasil analyzes how the Islamic education of seminarian women has propelled some of them into powerful positions in Iran from close ties with the state s supreme leader and chief justice to
