Power and Politics in Organizations Cynthia Hardy, 1995 This is a collection of articles exploring the issue of power in relation to organizations It asserts that any attempt to understand the large literature on power must extend beyond the confines of organization and management theory The argument underlying the volume is that broad exploration is essential because management studies of power have been for the most part severely constrained tending to view power from a functionalist perspective In so doing issues of how power becomes embedded in existing organizational structures cultures practices rules and regulations have been ignored

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1987 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Managerial Decision Making David John Hickson,1995 This work on the history of management thought covers strategic agenda building an analysis of muddling through the structure of power decision making by objection the escalation of commitment conceptual models and the Cuban missile crisis and information control as a power resource
