basis of all learning Back cover Collaborating(,) Literature(,) and Composition Frank Gaughan, Peter H. Khost, 2007 The disciplines of English and composition seem particularly prone to crisis driven proclamations our kids don't read the great works or they don't read at all or they can't write Crisis talk notwithstanding educators are left to theorize and practice ways to teach reading and writing with intelligence compassion and integrity However it often seems that theoretical formulations do not sufficiently explain their practicable applications and practicable discussions too rarely rise above the level of swapping recipes sharing assignments that work well in one context but may not in another Therefore the editors of this volume submit this collection of essays that strives to harmonize the all too often discordant qualities of theory and practice Each co-authored essay illustrates and analyzes various classroom based strategies for productive collaboration between literature and composition This collection envisions a reciprocal to composing literature literaturing composition which entails living through literature as Louise Rosenblatt has it This process regards the literary text as a medium for creative action so that one reads not to criticize so much as to imagine new compositional possibilities The eight essays in this collection are divided into four sections which span topics that include textuality and critical pedagogy argumentation and hybrid genres student engagement and popular culture and materiality and assessment Publisher's website

Conversations in American Literature Robin Dissin Aufses, Renee Shea, Lawrence Scanlon, 2020-12-30 Teachers have struggled for years to balance the competing demands of American Literature and AP English Language Now the team that brought you the bestselling Language of Composition is here to help Conversations in American Literature Language Rhetoric Culture is a new kind of American Literature anthology putting nonfiction on equal footing with the traditional fiction and poetry and emphasizing the skills of rhetoric close reading argument and synthesis To spark critical thinking the book includes TalkBack pairings and synthesis Conversations that let students explore how issues and texts from the past continue to impact the present Whether you're teaching AP English Language or gearing up for Common Core Conversations in American Literature will help you revolutionize the way American literature is taught Illinois Reading Council Journal, 2017

Digital Citizenship in Schools Mike Ribble, Gerald D. Bailey, 2007 Tackles personal interaction when using technologies and the role of digital citizenship in classrooms Education in the Arts Christine Sinclair, Neryl Jeanneret, John O'Toole, 2009 Education in the Arts Principles and Practices for Teaching covers the teaching of visual art drama dance and music in primary and early childhood education within the context of integrated creative arts education It links theory and research to teaching practice and allows teacher education students to apply what they have learned to new contexts It encourages reflection upon teaching practice through real case studies and provides direction for considering what it means to be an arts education teacher in a school rather than an art music or drama specialist The text is a valuable resource for both students and teachers with guidance on how to implement the various arts practices in a school setting
