In Search Of Global Patterns:

In Search of Global Patterns James N. Rosenau, 1976 Evaluating Methodology in International Studies Frank P. Harvey, Michael Brecher, 2009-12-11

Evaluating Methodology in International Studies offers a unique collection of original essays by world renowned political scientists. The essays address the state of the discipline in regard to the methodology of researching global politics focusing in particular on formal modeling, quantitative methods and qualitative approaches in International Studies. The authors reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of current methodology and suggest ways to advance theory and research in International Studies. This volume is essential reading for methods courses and will be of interest to scholars and students alike. See table of contents and excerpts.

Frank P. Harvey is Professor of Political Science and Director of the Centre for Foreign Policy Studies at Dalhousie University. Michael Brecher is the R. B. Angus Professor of Political Science at McGill University and past president of the International Studies Association.

Millennial Reflections on International Studies This volume is part of the Millennial Reflections on International Studies project in which forty five prominent scholars engage in self-critical state of the art reflection on international studies to stimulate debates about successes and failures and to address the larger questions of progress in the discipline. Other paperbacks from this project: Realism and Institutionalism in International Studies, Conflict Security Foreign Policy and International Political Economy, Past Paths and Future Directions in International Studies, Critical Perspectives in International Studies. The full collection of essays is available in the handbook Millennial Reflections on International Studies.

The Study of World Politics James N. Rosenau, 2006-05-02

James Rosenau's work is known for its originality and clarity and the sixteen articles in this new volume are no exception. Tackling the specific challenges posed by globalization and governance, this book covers four key areas: the challenge, tensions, contradictions, outcomes and global affairs; the profession, community, globalized space and international relations; globalization, complexities, contradictions and theory; governance, understanding and future. The Study of World Politics presents the thinking of one of the most innovative scholars in the last half century. The subjects addressed provide the big picture whilst also being meticulous in detail. This new book gives the reader an unparalleled understanding of globalization and governance and is an invaluable tool to students and scholars of politics and world affairs alike.
