FACT FILE

Let's find out more about the Italian Unification!

Also known as Risorgimento, the Italian Unification was a political and social movement that consolidated different states of the Italian peninsula into a single state of the Kingdom of Italy in the 19th century.

The process began in 1815, with the Congress of Vienna acting as a detonator, and was completed in 1871 when Rome became the capital. However, the last Italian territories under foreign rule did not join the Kingdom of Italy until 1918, after Italy finally defeated Austria-Hungary in World War I.

As other foreign powers were responsible for the situation in Italy, their very presence motivated Italians to strive for unification. However, Italy's successful unification, ironically, would not have come to pass without the help of foreign powers.
