The Octopus in the Parking Garage Rob Verchick,2023-04-11 Winner 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title One morning in Miami Beach an unexpected guest showed up in a luxury condominium complex s parking garage an octopus The image quickly went viral But the octopus and the combination of infrastructure quirks and climate impacts that left it stranded is more than a funny meme It s a potent symbol of the disruptions that a changing climate has already brought to our doorsteps and the ways we will have to adjust Rob Verchick examines how we can manage the risks that we can no longer avoid laying out our options as we face climate breakdown Although reducing carbon dioxide emissions is essential we need to adapt to address the damage we have already caused Verchick explores what resilience looks like on the ground from early humans on the savannas to today s shop owners and city planners He takes the reader on a journey into the field paddling through Louisiana s bayous hiking in one of the last refuges of Joshua trees in the Mojave Desert and diving off Key Largo with citizen scientists working to restore coral reefs The book emphasizes disadvantaged communities which bear the brunt of environmental risk arguing that building climate resilience is a necessary step toward justice Engaging and accessible for nonexpert concerned citizens The Octopus in the Parking Garage empowers readers to face the climate crisis and shows what we can do to adapt and thrive

Present Shock Douglas Rushkoff,2014-02-25 People spent the twentieth century obsessed with the future We created technologies that would help connect us faster gather news map the planet and compile knowledge We strove for an instantaneous network where time and space could be compressed Well the future s arrived We live in a continuous now enabled by Twitter email and a so called real time technological shift Yet this now is an elusive goal that we can never quite reach And the dissonance between our digital selves and our analog bodies has thrown us into a new state of anxiety present shock

Museum and Gallery Publishing Sarah Hughes,2019-06-20 Museum and Gallery Publishing examines the theory and practice of general and scholarly publishing associated with museum and art gallery collections Focusing on the production and reception of these texts the book explains the relevance of publishing to the cultural commercial and social contexts of collections and their institutions Combining theory with case studies from around the world Sarah Anne Hughes explores how why and to what effect museums and galleries publish books Covering a broad range of publishing formats and organisations including heritage sites libraries and temporary exhibitions the book argues that the production and consumption of printed media within the context of collecting institutions occupies a unique and privileged role in the creation and communication of knowledge Acknowledging that books offer functions beyond communication Hughes argues that this places books published by museums in a unique relationship to institutions with staff acting as producers and visitors as consumers The logistical and ethical dimensions of museum and gallery publishing are also examined in depth including consideration of issues such as production the impact of digital technologies funding and sponsorship marketing co publishing rights and curators and artists agency Focusing on an important but hitherto neglected topic Museum and Gallery Publishing is key reading for researchers in the fields of museum heritage art and publishing studies It will also be of interest to curators and other practitioners working in museums heritage and science centres and art galleries

Talkability James Borg,2016 A new book from James Borg on what to say and how to say it so you can get more from the way you talk All the day to day conversations that you have in your private and working life result in a particular outcome How many times do you come away from a situation and think you could have handled it better The realization that you should have used different words or said things in a different tone which might have produced a more positive result or avoided friction How often have you felt frustrated at your inability to state your case and to explain your thoughts well enough for the other person to grasp your point Make no mistake talk is our most precious commodity Human interaction and face to face communication came long before social media websites e mail and texting Yet more and more people have lost the art of conversing effectively and successfully as the screen replaces conversation Talkability provides tried and tested suggestions to help you get your points across and make things happen

James Borg,2010 Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch,Úrsula Oswald Spring,Czeslaw Mesjasz,John Grin,Pál Dunay,Navnita Chadha Behera,Béchir Chourou,Patricia Kameri-Mbote,P. H. Liotta,2008-01-23 Put quite simply the twin impacts of globalization and environmental degradation pose new security dangers and concerns In this new work on global security thinking 91 authors from five continents and many disciplines from science and practice assess the worldwide reassessment of the meaning of security triggered by the end of the Cold War and globalization as well as the multifarious impacts of global environmental change in the early 21st century Image Quality and System Performance ,2006 Wounds that Do Not Bind James R. Acker,David R. Karp,2006 For more information about the authors click here This volume presents perspectives of murder victims family members academics and crime victims advocates regarding an intensely debated issue about which surprisingly little information exists the significance of capital punishment to murder victims survivors The book includes more than twenty chapters that examine a variety of issues concerning these survivors or co victims and the death penalty These chapters present the personal accounts of victims family members experiences with the criminal justice system and examine relevant legal and research issues including the use of victim impact evidence in capital trials how the capital punishment process affects co victims what is known about the immediate and long term needs of murder victims survivors and how those needs can be addressed A valuable collection Crime Victims Report This manuscript is unique exploring an area that has generally been neglected in both the scholarly and public press The academic chapters are well referenced and adequately indexed The book is well written with clear prose within the reach of most readers CHOICE Magazine Wounds That Do Not Bind will be most effective in undergraduate criminal courses it offers students a rich portrait of victim based perspectives not likely to be found in textbooks The book should also be read by key criminal justice practitioners prosecutors defense attorneys judges and police many of whom might gain some startling insights into their own behaviors and their impact on outsiders Law Politics Book Review Malta and the European Union Julia Neumeyer,2007 How do factors such as small size insularity vulnerability and remoteness influence a small state s behaviour in international relations What are the major problems and events shaping Malta EU relations How can Malta s position in the EU be described In which way can this small island state defend and enforce its own interests in such a dominant regional organisation in which all members varying in size and power try to protect and press ahead their specific aims This thesis is an attempt to answer these questions and to provide a basis for further discussions and elaboration Entrepreneurship ,2010 Collections ,2005 Asbestos Bankruptcy Trusts Lloyd S. Dixon,Geoffrey McGovern,Amy Coombe,2010 This report describes the creation organization and operation of asbestos personal injury trusts and compiles publicly available information on the assets outlays and governing boards of the 26 largest trusts The authors find that the publicly available information provides a rich source of information on trust activity but that more detailed information is needed to determine their impact on important compensation outcomes

Documentation for Rehabilitation Lori Quinn, James Gordon (Ed.D.), 2010 In this textbook Quinn and Gordon provide a general approach to documentation that can be adapted to different settings for physical therapy students and professionals. They emphasize the concept that clinical reasoning is reflected in documentation and vice versa and that documentation is a framework for clinical decision making. They cover each documentation component and examples and exercises that relate to areas such as rehabilitation, women's health, health and wellness, orthopedics, and acute care. This edition has been revised and expanded and includes new chapters on payment policy and coding, legal aspects, pediatrics, and computerized documentation and incorporates the International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health model.

Bankrupting the Enemy Edward S. Miller, 2007 Award winning author Edward S. Miller contends that the United States forced Japan into international bankruptcy to deter its aggression. While researching newly declassified records, the retired chief financial executive of a Fortune 500 resources corporation uncovered just how much money mattered. The Japanese government had a huge cache of dollars fraudulently hidden in New York that once discovered it scrambled to extract. But in July 1941 President Roosevelt froze the money in an effort to bring Japan to its senses, not its knees. His intentions were thwarted, however, by opportunistic bureaucrats who maneuvered to deny Japan the dollars needed to buy oil and other resources for its economic survival. Miller's analysis of prewar documents, including a massive OSS State Department study, clearly demonstrates that the deprivations facing the Japanese people as a result of the freeze buttressed Japan's choice of war at Pearl Harbor.

The Burnout Fix: Overcome Overwhelm, Beat Busy, and Sustain Success in the New World of Work Jacinta M. Jiménez, 2021-03-09 Winner of getAbstract's Readers Choice Award 2021.
