Notes and Queries Beaver Henry Blacker, 1890 The Pasha Letitia W. Ufford, 2007-07-30 With striking parallels to recent confrontations in Iraq this is the story of the first Western international coalition to suppress an aggressive Middle Eastern ruler The challenger was Mehemet Ali Pasha called the founder of modern Egypt Convinced that the Europeans would never be able to unite against him he sought with charm brilliance and bravado to create a powerful Muslim counterweight to the encroaching West Drawing on research on three continents this timely book takes the reader into the heart of a crisis as France Great Britain the Ottoman government and the Pasha of Egypt maneuver to defend their interests in the Eastern Mediterranean Here are the passionate debates among French and British politicians as they struggle to control the Pasha without provoking a European war Here are the battlefields from the Euphrates to Beirut on which Mehemet Ali's modernizing forces created the facts that fed the crisis Here are the Sultan's ministers at Istanbul buffeted by the threats of European ambassadors And here in confrontation is the fascinating Mehemet Ali Pasha in constant conversation with those seeking to deflect him from his dangerous ambition As France began the fortification of Paris as Prussia contemplated the French threat of a war on the Rhine and as British warships flooded the Mediterranean Mehemet Ali sat cross legged on his sumptuous divan looking from his palace out over his beautiful fleet at anchor in the bay of Alexandria and challenged the western world Notes and Queries: a Medium of Inter-communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc, 1871

Exploring European Frontiers B. Dolan, 2000-03-02 The explorations of eighteenth century travellers to the European frontiers were often geared to define the cultural political and historical boundaries of European civilization In an age when political revolutions shocked nations into reassessing what separated the civilised from the barbaric how did literary travellers contemplate the characteristics of their continental neighbours Focusing on the writings of British travellers we see how a new view of Europe was created one that juxtaposed the customs and living conditions of populations in an attempt to define modern Europe against a yet unenlightened Europe

World History William J. Duiker, Jackson J. Spielvogel, 1997 This is a comprehensive introduction to world civilizations to 1500 It covers each major civilization such as China India and Europe and provides points of comparison between and among these civilizations It emphasizes breadth and accessibility and contains a wealth of primary source documents beautiful full color maps and interesting teaching and learning supplements to help students appreciate the complexity of the topic while enjoying its application to their lives

Manteo and the Algonquians of the Roanoke Voyages Brandon Fullam, 2019-12-09 When the English first arrived at the Outer Banks in the summer of 1584 they were greeted by native Algonquian speaking people who had long occupied present day North Carolina That historic contact initiated the often turbulent period of early American history commonly known as the Roanoke Voyages Unfortunately contemporary accounts regularly mischaracterize or marginalize the Algonquians and their significance in this period is poorly understood This volume is a unique collection of narratives highlighting by name all of the Algonquians who played a role in the often contentious attempts to establish the first permanent English colony in the New World Starting with Manteo the fascinating Croatoan Indian who traveled to England twice and learned to speak English this book focuses on the identities and endeavors of each of these individual Algonquians and tells their stories

The Custody and Courtship of Experience Padraig Hogan, 1995 Throughout most of the history of Western civilization Christianity and Classical ideals played a dominant part in education In most western countries however this is no longer the case In modern pluralist Democracies church influence struggles with pervasive influences from elsewhere for the hearts and minds of the public Educational policy remains however an instrument to be used by major power groups and in many countries has become to a greater or lesser extent an active or unwitting accomplice in furthering acquisitiveness and the accumulation of material advantage
