Barber: Mail tax payments early or pay online

Tax collector warns of postal changes as property tax deadline nears

TYLER — County Commissioner Barber is urging taxpayers to pay their property taxes early or online to avoid any potential issues with the postal service. The deadline for property tax payments is approaching, and Barber is concerned about the possibility of postal changes that could affect the collection process.

Six years after a deadly shooting at the Starrville Community Church in Starrville, Tenn., a man who survived the attack credits his survival to God. The man, Tim Barber, was one of the few people who survived the shooting, which occurred in 2004. Barber is now a member of the church and has spoken about his experience.

Barber's survival was a miracle, he says. He was hit in the chest and back, but he survived. Barber is now a member of the church and has spoken about his experience. Barber is now a member of the church and has spoken about his experience.
