

For what did Paul say he received grace and apostleship? Yes, it was for obedience to the faith. There is little question that those who receive salvation from God release themselves, at that same time, to the call of obedience that comes from faith. They go hand in hand. When you received Christ into your life, did you understand that, at that same moment, you were releasing your life to be used any way God would choose?

Lord, I know that You have a plan to use my life in this generation. Please make me aware today of where You are working in my home, neighborhood, church, and workplace. Make my heart ready all through the day so You can use me. Amen.

DIGGING DEEPER THROUGH THE WEEK

Read the Book of Esther this week. By most definitions of society in that day, Esther was a “nobody.” She was an orphan, a woman, and an exile. Yet she was called of God and used by God to save His children in her generation.

All believers are called to be on mission with God. Do you realize that you were placed in the world in this generation for “such a time as this” (see Esther 4:14)? What assignment has God given you? Consider throughout this week: Are you faithfully living each day as a priest unto God?

As you work through these “Digging Deeper Through the Week” sections, record your thoughts and questions and God’s responses in a journal.
