Development Terry Flew,2013-10-31 The concept of creative industries has developed considerable academic and policy momentum in the 21st century There has been a connection identified between the rise of creative industries and the urbanisation of the world's population particularly in relation to the significance of cities as sites of cultural production and consumption Much of the work on creative industries and cities however has drawn upon imagined geographies about the relationship between creativity and place This collection draws together contributions that critically appraise recent urban cultural policy discourses as well as reflecting on the role of culture and creative industries in the future development of cities This book is based on a special issue of The Information Society An International Journal UBD Gregorys Adelaide
