Introduction

Why Do Bible Study?

The Bible is Inspired by God

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

The word "inspiration" in 2 Timothy 3:16 is in the original Greek theopneustos (theopneustos), which literally means "God-breathed." For Scripture to be breathed by God requires that it originated from God's mouth or that it is the Word of God. Indeed, the term "Word of God" is used synonymously with the Scriptures throughout the Bible (e.g. John 1:14).

The Mechanics of Inspiration

There are numerous theories of how inspiration took place, including the following:

- Verbal inspiration – Human authors were inspired in such a way that God or the Holy Spirit dictated their words to them.
- Plenary inspiration – Human authors themselves are inspired by God in the same way God inspires any Christian today through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.
- Conceptual inspiration – God inspired human authors with the general concepts of the message, but left the words and details to the author.
- Verbal inspiration – God inspired human authors with each word, representing every letter.
- Dictated dictation – Human authors just took dictation from God as he spoke.

The best description of the process is found in 2 Peter 1:21, as he describes the process of prophesy being provided to human authors:

For no prophesy ever came by the will of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God (2 Peter 1:21)

Prophetic writers, then, did not dictate or write a word from God, but the Holy Spirit used them to speak as from God in the Holy Spirit (1 Cor 12:3). This illustrates direct dictation, as if in the case of a typist. Furthermore, this illustrates verbal inspiration, as if God is dictating every individual word to the author, and the author just writes down what he hears. This is the best description of the process, as it is the only one that is consistent with the Bible (e.g. 2 Peter 1:21).

This is not to rule out conceptual and verbal inspiration. Both suggest that human authors were involved in the writing, and that the individual permission and action of the authors were through in the process. However, God controlled the human author in such a way that the message was
