Language Testing In Practice Designing And Developing Useful Language Tests:

Language Testing in Practice Lyle F. Bachman, Adrian S. Palmer, 1996-09-19 This book relates language testing practice to current views of communicative language teaching and testing It builds on the theoretical background expounded in Bachman s Fundamental Considerations in Language Testing and examines the design planning and organization of tests The book is divided into three sections which discuss 1 objectives and expectations the context of language testing and the abilities to be tested 2 the process of test development including blueprints resources operationalization and scoring methods and 3 ten examples which illustrate the principles discussed in Parts One and Two

Language Testing in Practice : Designing and Developing Useful Language Tests Lyle F Bachman, 1996 Language Testing in Practice Lyle F. Bachman, Adrian S. Palmer, 2009

Local Language Testing Slobodanka Dimova, Xun Yan, April Ginther, 2020-02-20 Local Language Testing Design Implementation and Development describes the language testing practice that exists in the intermediate space between large scale standardized testing and classroom assessment an area that is rarely addressed in the language testing and assessment literature Covering both theory and practice the book focuses on the advantages of local tests fosters and encourages their use and provides suggested ideas for their development and maintenance The authors include examples of operational tests with well proven track records and discuss the ability of local tests to represent local contexts and values explicitly and purposefully embed test results within instructional practice and provide data for program evaluation and research local testing practices grounded in the theoretical principles of language testing drawing from experiences with local testing and providing practical examples of local language tests illustrating how they can be designed to effectively function within and across different institutional contexts examples of how local language tests and assessments are developed for use within a specific context and how they serve a variety of purposes e g entry level proficiency testing placement testing international teaching assistant testing writing assessment and program evaluation Aimed at language program directors graduate students and researchers involved in language program development and evaluation this is a timely book in that it focuses on the advantages of local tests fosters and encourages their use and outlines their development and maintenance It constitutes essential reading for language program directors graduate students and researchers involved in language program development and evaluation

Wortham,Betsy Rymes,2003 Over the years linguistic anthropological research has shown how classrooms are socializing institutions and how language functions as one medium through which this socialization is accomplished Early work in the field has captured the immediacy of social practice and language use in educational contexts and has created useful characterizations of variations in communicative competence The present work builds on the strengths of prior work showing how new theoretical concepts and empirical methods developed in linguistic anthropology over the last decade can further illuminate educational settings The authors introduce an updated Linguistic Anthropology of Education which recognizes that in the rapidly changing field of cultural production within which children and teachers operate today the exploration of multiple pre existing forms of communicative competence is not enough This volume elaborates theory and illustrates the tools and practices of the Linguistic Anthropology of Education to account for today s research context in which the multiplicity of identity and the multiple ways language can be used to represent it have important ramifications for how learning and social reproduction emerge within educational contexts Subjectivity, Second/foreign Language Pragmatic Use, and Instruction Noriko Ishihara,2006 Acta Societatis Linguisticae Europaeae ,2006 The Content-based Classroom Marguerite Ann Snow,Donna Brinton,1997 Shows how to apply the tenets of a content based approach to language instruction Explores practical models for teacher preparation classrooms strategies and alternative models research and assessment and the relationship between content based instruction and other instructional approaches International Journal of Dravidian Linguistics ,2016
