Learn Ndebele:

Zimbabwean Communities in Britain Christopher Roy Zembe, 2018-05-15 This book examines why Zimbabwean immigrants in Britain should be viewed as a product of ethno racial identities and prejudices developed and nurtured during the colonial and post colonial phases of Zimbabwe's history. In the absence of shared historic socio economic or cultural commonalities the book will tackle the key question: Are Zimbabweans in Britain demarcated by race and ethnicity an imagined community? Through an analysis of personal interviews and secondary and primary sources it identifies and engages historical experiences that had been instrumental in constructing diasporic identities and integration processes of Zimbabwean immigrants. With most literature tending to create perceptions that Zimbabwean immigrants are a monolithic community of Blacks, the book's comparative analysis of Blacks, Whites, Coloureds and Asians unveils a multi racial community fragmented by historic racial and ethnic allegiances and prejudices. It is essential reading for scholars and researchers interested in migration, African Diaspora and colonial and post colonial studies.

The Minority Language as a Second Language Jasone Cenoz, Durk Gorter, 2023-12-22 This innovative collection is the first of its kind to showcase global perspectives on learning minority languages as second languages, offering unique insights into their acquisition and specific characteristics and raising greater awareness around other languages and contexts where SLA occurs. The volume examines how minority languages are acquired as second languages across a range of geographic settings where these languages are unique minorities, that is, they are spoken in one or more states where they have a minority status. International case studies explore particular features of these languages as well as the challenges of teaching and learning them, including standardization, legal recognition at all educational levels, the dissemination of printed and digital materials, and more or less limited language use in the local community. Highlighted languages include Ashaninka, Basque, Frisian, Hawaiian, Irish, Isthmus Zapotec, Quechua, Chanka, Tonga, and Welsh. Each chapter adopts a consistent structure with a brief introduction to the sociolinguistic landscape, followed by sections on language use in education, research, studies, reflections, and discussions related to the learning of minority languages as second languages and the implication of these processes for the revitalization of minority languages. Breaking new ground in second language acquisition research, this book is an indispensable resource for advanced students and researchers in SLA, multilingual education, bilingualism, and sociolinguistics.

Sangano Norman Nhamu Musewe, 2025-12-05 Who am I? How did I get here? Have I arrived? After a lifetime of struggle, perseverance, and faith, these are the questions Norman Nhamu Musewe finds himself asking, and the reason he wrote this memoir. Norman knew from a young age he wanted to be a doctor. Growing up in Highfield, Zimbabwe, then known as Rhodesia, long waits at the doctor's office with his pregnant mother left Norman feeling frustrated by the state of things. Thus, the seed was planted, and Norman's journey began from medical school in Rhodesia to the United Kingdom in order to escape army conscription by the Rhodesian government, and then finally to Ontario, Canada, where family life and a career as a pediatric cardiologist brought trials and successes all their own All the while Norman faced obstacle after obstacle Racism in Rhodesia where segregation was the norm in university where Black students were not offered the same supports as their white peers and in the job market in Canada where discrimination ran rampant Mental illness and addiction hung over Norman s head like a cloud and at times he felt lost in his pursuit of something better Yet with the support of his loving wife and his God Norman found healing gratitude and new ways of seeing the world Through this story of intertwined narratives dislocations and pain and being lost and then found again Norman honours and remembers those who at different times and in different ways knowingly and unknowingly influenced his life and helped him learn to replant himself after being uprooted

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,Pedzisai Ruhanya,2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics
