Livability Stories Jon Raymond:

Livability Jon Raymond, 2009-07-01 A collection of rich powerfully human stories from the author of The Half Life and the movies Old Joy and Wendy and Lucy Livability Jon Raymond, Jonathan Raymond, 2009 A collection of rich powerfully human stories from the author of The Half Life and the movies Old Joy one of the finest American films of the year New York Times and Wendy and Lucy Analysing the Screenplay Jill Neldes, 2010-10-04 Analysing the Screenplay highlights the screenplay as an important form in itself as opposed to merely being the first stage of the production process Screening American Independent Film Justin Wyatt, W.D. Phillips, 2023-05-31 This indispensable collection offers 51 chapters each focused on a distinct American independent film Screening American Independent Film presents these films chronologically addressing works from across more than a century 1915-2020 emphasizing the breadth and long duration of American independent cinema The collection includes canonical examples as well as films that push against and expand the definitions of independence The titles run from micro budget films through marketing friendly Indiewood projects from auteur driven films and festival darlings to B movies genre pics and exploitation films The chapters also introduce students to different approaches within film studies including historical and contextual framing industrial and institutional analysis politics and ideology genre and authorship representation film analysis exhibition and reception and technology Written by leading international scholars and emerging talents in film studies this volume is the first of its kind Paying particular attention to issues of diversity and inclusion for both the participating scholars and the content and themes within the selected films Screening American Independent Film is an essential resource for anyone teaching or studying American cinema Kelly Reichardt Katherine Fusco, Nicole Seymour, 2017-11-30 Kelly Reichardt's 1994 debut River of Grass established her gift for a slow paced realism that emphasizes the ongoing everyday nature of emergency Her work since then has communed with yet remained apart from postwar European realisms the American avant garde independent film and the emerging slow cinema movement Katherine Fusco and Nicole Seymour read such Reichardt films as Wendy and Lucy and Night Moves to consider the root that emergency shares with emergence the slowly unfolding or the barely perceptible They see Reichardt as a filmmaker preoccupied with how environmental and economic crises affect those living on society's fringes Her spare plots and slow editing reveal an artist who recognizes that disasters are gradual with effects experienced through duration rather than sudden shock Insightful and boldly argued Kelly Reichardt is a long overdue portrait of a filmmaker who sees emergency not as a break from the everyday but as a version of it Faith and Spirituality in Masters of World Cinema, Volume III Kenneth R. Morefield, Nicholas S. Olson, 2015-02-05 Faith and Spirituality in Masters of World Cinema Volume III continues the work presented in the first two volumes of this title published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing in 2008 and 2011 It provides informed yet accessible articles that will provide readers with an introduction to masters of world cinema whose works explore the themes of human spirituality and religious faith Volume III contains essays dealing with canonical directors notably absent from the first two entries of the series such as De Sica and Hitchcock while also including examinations of contemporary auteurs who are still actively working like Asghar Farhadi and Apichatpong Weerasethakul While retaining an international emphasis similar to the first two volumes it also includes a focused look at a few American auteurs not yet considered in the series Volume III also acts as an important contribution to canon formation illustrating the complexity and variety in the films of those who are truly the masters of world cinema Built solidly around close formal readings of selective films the essays in Volume III also demonstrate familiarity with film history and bring insight from varied disciplines Framed by the question What makes movies material Volume III continues the series endeavour to have faith and spirituality provide a context for considering what makes cinema significant
