Linn County Parenting Plan 2010:

Parental Alienation and Family Reunification Pearl S. Berman, Ethan M. Weisinger, 2024-02-01 This book on parental alienation and family reunification provides family court professionals with critical background in child development dynamics present in violent families and how to evaluate the testimony of experts to ensure it values children's views, best interests of the children and follows evidence-based practice as laid out in the Child Welfare Information Gateway report 2020. Family court judges should make decisions per the best interests of the child standard. High conflict custody cases make this complicated, especially when reunification services are requested. In the middle of contentious proceedings, judges oftentimes receive conflicting information from parents. Judges and family law professionals can be led astray relying on unproven constructs and instruments not meeting the criteria of reliability and validity. Mandating victimized children into reunification programs that are neither evidence-based nor trauma-informed can cause further harm to the children. This book will be of interest to those working in the family courts, particularly expert witnesses, clinical psychologists, therapists, children's services workers, including social workers, child protection court workers, mental health professionals involved in child custody decisions, and researchers with an interest in parental alienation. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Family Trauma: Child Custody, Child Development, Home, School, and Community Collaboration. Kathy B. Grant, Julie A. Ray, 2018-02-27 Home School and Community Collaboration uses the culturally responsive family support model as a framework to prepare teachers to work effectively with children from diverse families. Authors Kathy B. Grant and Julie A. Ray skillfully incorporate numerous real-life vignettes and case studies to show readers the practical application of culturally responsive family engagement. The Fourth Edition contains additional content that enhances the already relevant text, including a new section titled Perspectives on Poverty, acknowledging the deep levels of poverty in the United States and the impact on family-school relations; increased coverage of Latino/Latina family connections and updated demographics focusing on the issues impacting same-sex families, families experiencing divorce, children and family members with chronic illnesses, military families, and grandparents raising children. With contributions from more than 22 experts in the field offering a wide range of perspectives, this book will help readers understand, appreciate, and support diverse families. This text is accompanied with FREE online resources. Parenting the Crisis Tracey Jensen, 2018-03-28 This book examines how pathologizing ideas of failing, chaotic, and dysfunctional families create a powerful consensus that Britain is in the grip of a parent crisis and are used to justify increasingly punitive state policies. Reports of Cases Decided in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, State of New York New York (State). Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Marcus Tullius Hun, Jerome B. Fisher, Austin B. Griffin, Edward Jordan Dimock, Louis J. Rezzemini, Leland F. Coss, James M.
