	Students "look, listen and repeat" exercises and colorful illustrations help intermediate-level phonics students identify the beginning sounds of the beginning sounds of words, build a sight word vocabulary, and make the connection between spoken and written language.	Students continue to build a sight word vocabulary, adding longer phrases and more advanced words. The words made familiar through words in preparation for phonics study.	Students develop more and reading skills by using individual words and reading sentences. Through the end of the week, students begin to put together simple three-letter words.	Students continue to develop and reading skills by using more words containing blends, consonant digraphs, consonant-vowel teams, and long vowels produced by the silent e.	Students begin to develop skills by trying to identify words with consonant-vowel combinations (digraphs, diphthongs), two-vowel words with consonant digraphs, and two-vowel compound words.	Students identify nouns, verbs and adjectives, and use them within phrases and sentences. Students learn the singular and plural forms of nouns and verbs, and the comparative and superlative forms of adjectives.

Sentence Building Block
Highlights	AI	AII	BII	BII	BII	BII	Highlights
	Students study the structure of simple sentences and learn expressions which convey attitude or intention, such as "can," "must," "may" and "should." Students learn to write regarding comparisons, conditions, and sentences using the past tense.	Through reading stories and answering questions, students improve reading comprehension and writing skills. Punctuation, spelling and capitalization are also studied. Students learn to recognize a paragraph of thoughts developed within a short paragraph.	Students refine their ability to identify subject and predicate in longer sentences, compare clauses and use adjectives and adverbs. Students recognize irregular verbs, as well as study pronouns, prepositions and irregular plural of nouns.	Students learn to define verbs using context clues in the story, to compare, contrast, and to use a chart to better understand the story as a whole, and to compare and contrast actions, characters and information from a passage.	Students refine their ability to identify, compare, contrast, and use them to anticipate the future, progression and perfect forms. Students compare studying punctuation. Students begin writing complete sentences independently.	Students learn to construct and improve by questions using which, what, where, when, why and how to obtain information in charts, to organize information from a paragraph into a chart format, and to write answers independently.
