Life in Inclusive Classrooms Bank Street College of Education, 2016 This issue of the Occasional Papers Series aims to draw attention to the use of storytelling as a medium for provoking dialogue about inclusive classrooms and school communities It offers readers stories of classroom life that provide insights into understanding the complexities that make up the lives of children with disabilities their families and teachers The nine contributions to this issue include lived narratives and analyses presented from a wide range of useful subject positions parents general and special education teachers researchers advocates siblings and persons who are themselves disabled The introduction titled Disability Studies in Education Storying Our Way to Inclusion was written by Joseph Michael Valente and Scot Danforth The opening essay by Diane Linder Berman and David J Connor Eclipsing Expectations How A 3rd Grader Set His Own Goals And Taught Us All How to Listen kicks off with a description of an illuminating journey through the eyes of a parent Diane who wanted a more inclusive experience for her son Benny For Diane and Benny this meant becoming meaningful participants not only in Benny s own classroom community but in the Individualized Education Program IEP meetings that determined his educational goals David uses a DSE framework to analyze and highlight the importance of context as opposed to focusing on the disability condition in enacting inclusionary practices The authors argue for an adhocratic model of education that views children educators and parents as allies In Teaching Stories Inclusion exclusion and Disability Studies Linda Ware and Natalie Wheeler Hatz describe an exceptional collaboration between a university teacher educator Linda and a public school teacher Natalie Together they develop a Teaching Stories in service workshop for Natalie s colleagues to learn about disability studies as well as a curriculum for her fifth grade class Teaching Stories participants engage in self reflection to examine personal biases about disability use media to critically review representations of disability and learn how to harness the potential of young adult literature to provide illustrative non deficit perspectives on disabilities Louis Olander an Iraqi war veteran and special education teacher in New York City crafts a powerful story about his experiences coming to terms with a

diagnosis of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and navigating the quandaries and everyday realities of what he terms quasi inclusion In Rethinking Those Kids Lessons Learned From a Novice Teacher s Induction into In Exclusion Louis argues for reframing inclusionary practices as pedagogies for equity that attend to the intersectional dynamics of race class and disability He also encourages more local control over the implementation of inclusionary classroom practices Inspired by Vivian Paley s storying scholarship the essay The Unfolding of Lucas s Story in an Inclusive Classroom Living Playing and Becoming in the Social World of Kindergarten tells stories about a vibrant kindergartner named Lucas through the viewpoints of his mother Emma teacher Carmen and teacher educator Haeny In this multi voiced story the narrative centers on Lucas and shifts outward toward those orbiting Lucas s wondrously playful universe The magic of Lucas s unfolding story is in the ways it disrupts conventional discourses about labels interventions and imposed meanings of Autism Spectrum Disorder ASD Karen Watson s ethnographic study Talking Tolerance Inside the Inclusive Early Childhood Classroom provides an inside look into what the Australian government calls inclusive learning communities This term emerges from a national early years learning framework that highlights ability and disability as diversity Following the course of a six month period in three inclusive early childhood classrooms Karen offers an account of the transformative potential of inclusion in contrast to the harmful effects of teaching tolerance Tolerance as Karen s study reveals preserves the dualism of normal versus abnormal or Other and hinders critical reflection about ableist assumptions Hitting the Switch S e puede takes the reader into the lifeworld of first grader Jason at Castle Bridge Elementary School a public dual language school in New York City Written by Jason s teachers Stephanie and Andrea in conjunction with his mother Sandra this essay puts forward the ethos S e puede Yes you can which relies on children s empathy and calls for a collective response to inclusion Hitting the Switch concludes with practical suggestions for creating an inclusive space for children who use assistive communicative devices so that they can become meaningful participants in the classroom community Emily Clark s I Don t Belong Here Narrating Inclusion at the Exclusion of Others privileges the voices of families in their quest for inclusive education Borrowing from narrative research and Disability Studies in Education Emily tells the story of her adoptive siblings Maria and Isaac who were orphaned by AIDS She explores the paradox of inclusion which is that it sometimes if not oftentimes fails and results in exclusion A chief reason for the failure of inclusion Emily argues is that children with real and perceived differences challenge the grammar of schooling that is they stand out for their differences A beautifully crafted ethnographic description of a rural Midwestern middle school Lunch Detention Our Little Barred Room by Lisa A Johnson pulls back the facades of inclusion to reveal emotional violence and deep seated discriminatory practices against special education students Lisa herself blind describes how she was approached by an administrator to take over the role of lunch detention supervisor for the little barred room In a short time the little barred room becomes a place of refuge for Lisa and the other students who share stories of friendship and create an inclusive space that empowers them to challenge a culture of oppression Melissa

Tsuei's A Circle With Edges How Storytime Privileges the Abled Learner takes a critical look at one of the commonplace features of early childhood classrooms story time In her essay Melissa considers the ways in which story time reinforces unequal power dynamics for diverse learners by privileging the able bodied learner In response Melissa creates and presents the SPHERE model which promotes active engagement and shared dialogue through collaborative storytelling and nurtures an inclusive literacy learning environment Taken together these essays are intended to offer readers an applied DSE approach to inclusive classroom pedagogy These essays frame disability and the lives of young children with disabilities in ways that privilege the self understandings and experiential knowledge of the children and their families illuminate oppressive systems arrangements and circumstances that deny them opportunities for access to participation and equality and create opportunities for greater levels of access participation and equality for them It is the hope that these essays will further amplify and provoke unending discussions about how to create and sustain genuinely inclusive classrooms and communities Individual papers contain references Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom Arthur Shapiro, Vulnerable to Exclusion Emily Anne Mintz, 2009
