How To Us National Parks Online For Workers:

Twitter, the Public Sphere, and the Chaos of Online Deliberation Gwen Bouvier,Judith E. Rosenbaum,2020-07-29 This volume provides a critical view of the nature and quality of political and civic communication on Twitter The introduction lays out the current state of research showing the continuum of views from the more optimistic to more pessimistic regarding the platform s potential to facilitate civic conversations The eleven empirical case studies in the book provide new insights addressing a variety of topics through a diverse array of methodological approaches Together the chapters provide a counter position to recent studies that offer more celebratory assessments of Twitter s potential The book draws attention to the chaotic insular uncivil and emotionally charged nature of debate and communication on Twitter Where Are the Workers? Robert Forrant,Mary Anne Trasciatti,2022-06-28 The labor movement in the United States is a bulwark of democracy and a driving force for social and economic equality Yet its stories remain largely unknown to Americans Robert Forrant and Mary Anne Trasciatti edit a collection of essays focused on nationwide efforts to propel the history of labor and working people into mainstream narratives of US history In Part One the contributors concentrate on ways to collect and interpret worker oriented history for public consumption Part Two moves from National Park sites to murals to examine the writing and visual representation of labor history Together the essayists explore how place based labor history initiatives promote understanding of past struggles create awareness of present challenges and support efforts to build power expand democracy and achieve justice for working people A wide ranging blueprint for change Where Are the Workers shows how working class perspectives can expand our historical memory and inform and inspire contemporary activism Contributors Jim Beauchesne Rebekah Bryer Rebecca Bush Conor Casey Rachel Donaldson Kathleen Flynn Elijah Gaddis Susan Grabski Amanda Kay Gustin Karen Lane Rob Linn Erik Loomis Tom MacMillan Lou Martin Scott McLaughlin Kristin O Brassill Kulfan Karen Sieber and Katrina Windon Interpreting Heritage Steve Slack,2020-11-29 Interpreting Heritage is a practical book about the planning and delivery of interpretation that will give anyone working in the heritage sector the confidence and tools they need to undertake interpretation Steve Slack suggests a broad formula for how interpretation can be planned and executed and describes some of the most popular and potentially challenging or provocative forms of interpretation Slack also provides practical guidance about how to deliver different forms of interpretation while avoiding potential pitfalls Exploring some of the ethical questions that arise when presenting information to the public and offering a grounding in some of the theory that underpins interpretive work the book will be suitable for those who are completely new to interpretation Those who already have some experience will benefit from tools advice and ideas to help build on their existing practice Drawing upon the author s professional experiences of working within and for the heritage sector Interpreting Heritage provides advice and suggestions that will be essential for practitioners working in museums art galleries libraries archives outdoor sites science centres castles stately homes and other heritage venues around the world It will also be of interest to students of museum and heritage studies who want to know more about how heritage interpretation works in practice   The Writer's Market ERS.,2001 Describes thousands of markets for writers covering magazines publishers syndicates and contests with information on submission requirements pay scale and freelance work and listings of editors and agents   Mental health promotion during COVID-19: Applications from self-care resources, lifestyles, and environments.
