International Politics Enduring Concepts And Contemporary Issues 11th Edition:

International Politics Robert J. Art, Timothy W. Crawford, Robert Jervis, 2023-02-06 International Politics Enduring Concepts and Contemporary Issues has been helping students understand the dynamics of international relations for fifty years. Readings by leading scholars on essential topics illustrate fundamental debates and differing points of view for a comprehensive and engaging overview of the discipline while introducing readers to the major forces shaping the world today. The fourteenth edition continues the book's cornerstone approach of combining foundational theoretical works with recent perspectives on current problems including a wealth of new material spread across each of the book's four parts. The foundational material is organized to highlight the concept of anarchy in international relations and how matters of security, power, military force, international political economy, and strategic interactions influence patterns of cooperation and conflict. In addition to a focus on basic security and strategic problems, the politics of international commerce and challenges facing the global economy, this edition also covers critical contemporary issues including human rights, civil wars, intervention, and peacekeeping, migration, cyber conflict, great power competition, climate change, energy transition, nuclear weapons, pandemic, diplomacy, and changes in the political shape of the system. Features: 60 expertly edited readings from scholarly sources with 30 new to this edition. A four-part organization to cover anarchy, the use of force, international political economy, and contemporary issues with an in-depth editor introduction to each part. An entirely new chapter on the return of great power politics, ever more important after Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Learning objectives and discussion questions to focus student learning.

The Oxford Handbook of Grand Strategy Thierry Balzacq, Ronald R. Krebs, 2021 The Oxford Handbook of Grand Strategy addresses the conceptual and historical foundations, production, evolution, and future of grand strategy from a wide range of standpoints.

India-US Relations in the Age of Uncertainty B.M. Jain, 2016-04-20 In the initial phase of the Obama administration, India's ruling class and strategic community formed a perception that the spirit of strategic partnership between the two countries might be diluted on account of China looming large in the priorities of this administration. Despite occasional hiccups in their relationship, this perception was overshadowed by the administration's recognition of India's role as counterweight to China in the Asia Pacific region. This book addresses and re-evaluates the perceptions, policies, and perspectives of public policy makers and bureaucratic elites in both India and the US in setting and articulating the tone, tenor, and substance of the multi-faceted ties between the two countries. The scope of the book is not exclusively limited to the bilateral relationship in the critical areas such as the Indo-US nuclear deal, defence, security, and strategic partnership. Its concerns and ramifications are much wider in global and regional contexts, covering involving security architecture in the Asia Pacific region, the interface between terrorism and weapons of mass destruction (WMDs), China as a factor in India-US relations, and the fallout of the New Delhi-Washington partnership on South Asia.

Kerkvliet, David G. Marr, 2004 The first book in English to examine local government and authority in Vietnam since the country s reunification in 1975 this volume includes a daring criticism of Party rule at the local level It addresses four questions what local institutions and offices have authority to govern who are the local officials and how do they get their positions what do local governments do and whose interests do they serve and what do residents say about local officials and governing institutions Based on in depth research six chapters emphasize particular villages and districts in different parts of the country one examines a ward in Hanoi another focuses on Ho Chi Minh City and one compares leaders in several provinces To contextualize conditions opening chapter synthesizes the findings in this book with those in other studies by researchers inside and outside Vietnam

Symbiotic Realism Nayef R. F. Al-Rodhan, 2007

Symbiotic Realism is a theory of relations in a globally anarchic world of instant connectivity and interdependence It aims to provide a comprehensive framework for understanding the character of relations generated by four interlocking facets of the global system the neurobiological substrates of human nature global anarchy instant connectivity and interdependence It provides a way of understanding how a myriad of actors including states transnational corporations women the biosphere and civilizations help to shape and are shaped by the global system It also contains a clear normative commitment to moving beyond the present limits of the structure and political organization of the global system towards a more just and peaceful global order

Global Politics James Lee Ray, Juliet Kaarbo, 2005 Theories of global politics The historical setting The modern era The power of states Inside states the making of foreign policy International conflict State efforts to avoid conflict alliances arms and bargaining Global security efforts international organizations law and ethics Interdependence among rich states international political economy in the north The developing states in the international political economy Regional economic integration in the global political economy The global environment and its inhabitants Transnational actors the wave of the future Globalization contemporary dynamics and the future of world politics

The State of the North Tess Lea, Bill Wilson, 2005 The State of the North is it the future of an increasingly environmentally challenged mainstream Australia Or a failed colonial outpost already showing signs of its use by date in its dependence on imported resources for survival Does being the gateway to Asia leave residents with a moral responsibility for setting Australia s policy on emergency migration or is our inability to influence policy a simple reminder of the Northern Territory s dependency on the federation Will becoming a state lend us any weight in the national body politic Such questions inspire this collection of papers from the Charles Darwin Symposia Series for 2003 and are collected here to mark an important historic moment in the description of Territory issues With clear and purposeful think pieces from such key contemporary commentators as Mandawuy Yunupingu Tim Flannery Glenn Withers Paul Dibb Andrew Wilkie and Gillian Cowlshaw this volume should be of use to policy makers and concerned members of the public alike Tess Lea is the Director of the School for Social and Polity Research within the Institute of Advanced Studies at Charles Darwin University Bill Wilson is a Senior Advisor Support and Equity Services at Charles Darwin University an historian and expert in issues of politics and policing
