Kharbe,2009 Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs,2014-01-03 How is labour changing in the age of computers the Internet and social media such as Facebook Google YouTube and Twitter In Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs attempts to answer that question crafting a systematic critical theorisation of labour as performed in the capitalist ICT industry Relying on a range of global case studies from unpaid social media prosumers or Chinese hardware assemblers at Foxconn to miners in the Democratic Republic of Congo Fuchs sheds light on the labour costs of digital media examining the way ICT corporations exploit human labour and the impact of this exploitation on the lives bodies and minds of workers The Handbook of Global

Interventions in Communication Theory Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2022-03-10 Moving beyond the U S Eurocentric paradigm of communication theory this handbook broadens the intellectual horizons of the discipline by highlighting underrepresented especially non Western theorists and theories and identifies key issues and challenges for future scholarship Showcasing diverse perspectives the handbook facilitates active engagement in different cultural traditions and theoretical orientations that are global in scope but local in effect It begins by exploring past efforts to diversify the field continuing on to examine theoretical concepts models and principles rooted in local cumulative wisdom It does not limit itself to the mass interpersonal communication divide but rather seeks to frame theory as global and inclusive in scope The book is intended for communication researchers and advanced students with relevance to scholars with an interest in theory within information science library science social and cross cultural psychology multicultural education social justice and social ethics international relations development studies and political science

Introducing Cultural Studies Marta Wiszniowska, 2012 New Media and Perennial Problems in Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Liliana Piasecka, Małgorzata Adams-Tukiendorf, Przemysław Wilk, 2014-11-28 The book concerns the ways in which the new media shape communication along with educational expectations and practices in foreign language classrooms Although foreign language learners have cheap and easy access to information and ways of communication they also wrestle with problems that have always accompanied language learning The focus of the book is two fold On the one hand the authors demonstrate how using social networks videoconferencing mobile phones wikis and computer mediated interaction contributes to the development of language skills negotiated interaction autonomy and intercultural competence On the other they discuss old issues pertaining to the role of vocabulary corrective feedback textbooks and inner speech in the process of language learning and use Every chapter reports original empirical research on issues related to the new media and old problems in foreign language teaching contexts in various countries and with respect to various age groups

Chicana Without Apology Edén E. Torres, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Investigating Cultural Studies in Foreign Language Teaching Michael Byram, Veronica Esarte-Sarries, 1991 The main purpose of this book is to help foreign language teachers to reflect upon and investigate their learners views of the countries and peoples whose language they teach It presents data from a research project and explains its significance and usefulness for teachers

Doing Cultural Theory David Walton, 2012-03-26 Will be a very useful tool for any student trying to make sense of the vast expanses of contemporary cultural theory and criticism Well written and admirably self reflective it combines rigorous explications and applications of many of the most influential concepts and theorists Lawrence Grossberg University of North Carolina Accessible and insightful throughout offering help to both experienced and inexperienced students of cultural theory Highly recommended John Storey University of Sunderland Doing Cultural Theory teaches more than just the basics of cultural theory It unpacks its complexities with real life examples and shows readers how to link theory and practice This book Offers accessible introductions to how cultural studies has engaged with key theories in structuralism poststructuralism and postmodernism Teaches straightforward ways of practising these theories so students learn to think for themselves Uses practice boxes to show students how to apply cultural theory in the real world Guides students through the literature with carefully selected further reading recommendation Other textbooks only show how others have analyzed and interpreted the world Doing Cultural Theory takes it a step further and teaches students step by step how to do cultural theory for themselves

Cultural Studies in Asia Söng-gon Kim,Alec Gordon,2004 Cultural Studies: A Critical Introduction Simon During,2004-11-23 Cultural Studies A Critical Introduction is a wide ranging and stimulating introduction to the history and theory of Cultural Studies from Leavisism through the era of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies to the global nature of contemporary Cultural Studies Cultural Studies A Critical Introduction begins with an introduction to the field and its theoretical history and then presents a series of short essays on key areas of Cultural Studies designed to provoke discussion and raise questions Each thematic section examines and explains a key topic within Cultural Studies Sections include the discipline time space media and the public sphere identity sexuality and gender value
