Subject: Introducing David M.

Hello classmates,

My name is David M, however, most people just call me "Mitch". I am currently on active duty in the United States Navy and have been for the past nine years. Due to my fluctuating schedule in the Navy I was forced to take the lion's share of classes via the online method. Last semester I held a 4.0 grade point average and received the honor of the presidents list and an invitation to join the Tidewater Community College chapter of Phi Theta Kappa (the International Honors Society). English 112 happens to be one of the ticket punches I need for graduation, hence the reason I am here. I am slated to graduate from Tidewater Community College at the end of this semester with my Associates in Science, given all things proceed as planned. Upon completion of my time at Tidewater Community College I intend on transferring to Old Dominion University to obtain a Bachelors in Science with a chemistry major and a forensic science minor. My long range educational goal is to achieve a master's degree in chemistry however, right now I am focusing on the short term. You maybe wondering "why does a sailor need this type of education", well I do not intend to remain apart of the Naval organization for much longer. I am attempting to get an entry level position working with federal law enforcement agencies such as Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), United States Secret Service (USSS), and United States Customs agency (USC). Once I have my foot in the door at one of those agencies I can continue my education to reach my career goal, which is to become a Forensic Scientist.

When I have time in between school and my naval duties I am an avid outdoorsman. I enjoy most anything that deals in some way with nature. My favorite things to do are hunting, fishing, camping, and hiking. I also use to ride bulls in the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA) and the International professional Rodeo Association (IPRA) for five years. I chose to give up my eight second adrenaline rush four years ago when my daughter was born. Giving up bull riding is a decision I do not regret, I figure it is more important to give her a fully functioning father than it is for me to get a dangerous thrill ride. I am not much of a television watcher or even a computer person, the only reason I own a computer is so I can continue my education given the circumstances.

I will be the first to admit that even though English core classes are required I desperately need them. I haven't really done much in the way of writing since I was in High school, ten years ago. I had taken a few creative writing classes my last few years in high school but I never applied my self to it. Shortly after high school I joined the Navy and any semblance of grammar or proper writing I had went right out the window. So for the last nine years I have written thousands of memos and messages in what has come to be known as "navyseese" (a form of writing that follows no grammatical law or logical order). Most of the reading that I have done other than what has been required in college has been Navy technical manuals, which all
