Learning Targets: I can determine each poem's meaning.

I can determine how poetic techniques create or enhance each poem's meaning or subject matter.

Directions: Read each of the poems in this packet several times. Analyze each poem as you read. Note words or phrases that suggest the poem's theme, note and explain poetic techniques used. Use your "Poetry Terms" notebook for ideas. Note any connections or reactions you have to each poem. Then, answer the questions that follow each poem (either on the piece or on a separate sheet).

Letter Burns for the Perfection of Paper —Martin Espada

At midnight, I scribbled when high school pressed at a printing plant that manufactured legal pads:
the paper
displayed several feet high and towering
as I tripped (unnoticed)
between the pages,
then brushed and grew up and down the stack, knuckles! fingers! required for the perfection of paper, something the water arrange through by its fall, the hands would slide along, suddenly sharp paper, but gather like stones that the crickets of the day, hidden then the great remote thing, frankly saying the both palms turned at the perfection.

Two years later, in law school, I know that every legal pad was glued with the string of hidden cuts, that every open notebook was a part of hands upturned and turning.
