Annotated Leading Cases of International Criminal Tribunals André Klip,Göran Sluiter,1999 This sixteenth volume of Annotated Leading Cases of International Criminal Tribunals contains decisions taken by the Special Panels for Serious Crimes in Timor Leste between 2003 and 2006 It provides the full text of the most important decisions identical to the original version and includes concurring separate and dissenting opinions All decisions are commented on by distinguished international scholars and academics in the field of international criminal law Corpus Juris of Islamic International Criminal Justice Farhad Malekian,2018-09-30 This pioneering scholarly oeuvre evaluates the major comparative philosophy of Islamic international criminal justice It represents an in depth analysis of the necessities of creating an Islamic international criminal court its possible jurisdiction proceedings judgments and sanctions It implies a court functioning under the legal personality of the International Criminal Court with comparative international criminal lawyers with basic knowledge of Shariah contributing to the prevention of crimes and impunity at an international level The morality and philosophy of Islamic justice are highly relevant with reference to the atrocities committed explicitly or implicitly under the pretext of Islamic rules by superiors groups and governments The volume focuses on substantive criminal law and three methods of the criminal procedure namely the inquisitorial adversarial and adquisitorial The first two constitute the corpus juris of civil and common law systems The third term presents a hybrid of the first two methods The intention is to enhance the scope of each method of the criminal procedure comprehensively The volume examines their variations and effects on a shared system of international criminal justice The inherence of comparable norms in the foundation of Islamic and international criminal law affirms their efficiency in the implementation of the essence of the complementarity principle This book will appeal to readers who are interested in comparative criminal law international criminal justice and Shariah criminal law It is recommended for course literature

The Triggering Procedure of the International Criminal Court Héctor Olásolo,2005-10-01 The Rome Statute unlike the statutes of the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and for Rwanda creates a permanent court whose dormant jurisdiction covers the territory and includes the nationals of States Parties and is universal in cases where the Security Council makes a referral Besides unlike the ad hoc tribunals which have jurisdiction over specific crisis situations whose personal territorial and temporal parameters have been defined in their respective statutes by the UN Security Council in the case of the ICC it is not possible to determine a priori in which situations the ICC will be involved As a result the most relevant activity of the Court is the determination of those situations regarding which the dormant jurisdiction of the Court will be triggered The book The Triggering Procedure of the International Criminal Court constitutes the first comprehensive analysis of the proceedings that prior to any criminal investigation aim to make such a fundamental determination
