The tenth man Graham Greene, 1981 Graham Greene Omnibus Graham GREENE, 1985 New York Magazine, 1988-12-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Ontology of Death Aaron Aquilina, 2023-05-18 Through examination of the death penalty in literature Aaron Aquilina contests Heidegger's concept of being towards death and proposes a new understanding of the political and philosophical subject Dickens Nabokov Hugo Sophocles and many others explore capital punishment in their works from Antigone to Invitation to a Beheading Using these varied case studies Aquilina demonstrates how they all highlight two aspects of the experience First they uncover a particular state of being or more precisely non being that comes with a death sentence and second they reveal how this state exists beyond death row as sovereignty and alterity are by no means confined to a prison cell In contrast to Heidegger's being towards death which individualizes the subject only I can die my own death supposedly this book argues that when condemned to death the self and death collide putting under erasure the category of subjectivity itself Be it death row or not when the supposed futurity of death is brought into the here and now we encounter what Aquilina calls relational death Living on with death severs the subject's relation to itself the other and political sociality as a whole rendering the human less a named and recognizable being than an anonymous living corpse a human thing In a sustained engagement with Blanchot Levinas Hegel Agamben and Derrida The Ontology of Death articulates a new theory of the subject beyond political subjectivity defined by sovereignty and beyond the Heideggerian notion of ontological selfhood

Empire and the break up of the unitary British state the study explores how contemporary writing in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales contributes to a sense of nationhood in those places and so contributes to the break up of Britain symbolically Dix argues that the break up of Britain is not limited to political devolution in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales It is also an imaginary process that can be found occurring on a number of other conceptual coordinates Feminism class regional identities and ethnic communities are all terrains on which different writers carry out a fictional questioning of received notions of Britishness and so contribute in different ways to the break up of Britain Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1851 Punch, 1851 The New York Times Biographical Service, 1985 A compilation of current biographical information of general interest The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film
