Human Resource Management David A. DeCenzo, Stephen P. Robbins, 1999 Over the past decade management practice has gone through dramatic changes Workforce diversity downsizing reengineering total quality management outsourcing and rediscovering the importance of satisfying the customer all has a significant impact on Human Resources The new Sixth Edition of De Cenzo Robbins Human Resource Management features a current real world perspective that gives readers a crystal clear picture of what today's HRM is really like. Emphasizing the application of theory, the Sixth Edition carefully integrates real examples with the most up-to-date information available. The Strategic Human Resource Management Sourcebook Lloyd Baird, Craig Eric Schneier, Richard W. Beatty, 1988

Strategic Human Resource Management: A Balanced Approach Paul Boselie, Beatrice van der Heijden, 2024-05-07

The highly anticipated third edition of Strategic Human Resource Management offers a fresh perspective on SHRM. Bringing together a wealth of expertise in HRM, Work and Organizational Psychology, and Organizational Behaviour, the authors provide a balanced approach to structuring and solving real-life HR issues in organizations. This new edition aligns Human Resource practices with both the internal and external organizational context and takes a critical perspective on economics, sustainability, psychology, sociology, and industrial relations. Its unique multi-level approach includes the individual, employee, teams, business units, organizations, sectors, and countries to build a more balanced people management value chain.

New additions: New chapter on Career Development, New Activity Boxes to encourage practical application of theory, New case studies throughout including Google, easyJet, and Ikea. Major revisions to chapters to highlight sustainable career development, employability, digitalization, and diversity. Major update of the scientific literature references. Key Features: Cases and Discussion Questions provide real-world scenarios and issues to illustrate contemporary HR issues in practice. Stop and Reflect Boxes throughout each chapter are designed to encourage students to critically evaluate topics and issues raised and how they can be applied to real-life situations. Personal Development Boxes help students think about how to link theoretical concepts with the development of personal skills appropriate to effective HRM. Experiential Exercises present Individual and Team tasks that can be used as in-class exercises, encouraging students to learn from direct experiences.

Paul Boselie is Professor in Public Administration Organization Science at Utrecht University, the Netherlands. His research traverses human resource management, institutionalism, strategic management, and industrial relations. Beatrice van der Heijden is Professor in Strategic Human Resource Management at Radboud University, the Netherlands, and Head of the SHRM Department. Her research and teaching are focused on strategic human resource management, sustainable careers, employability, and aging at work.
