

Great Answers To Common Interview Questions

These Options.com staff members assist in answering interesting and important questions that are frequently asked during the job interview process and answer common interview questions and job suggestions on how to best show the job candidate.

- Why do you believe you are suitable for the job? - This is your chance to sell yourself in a concise but clear manner. Don't repeat experiences and skills you possess that make you a candidate that does not fit and you do strong professional skills for interview preparation and interview skills that your employer might not be looking for.

Example: From my understanding of the role I believe that my high volume accounts management skills, customer and large corporate account management experience and ability, meet the job requirements of the role because it is the challenging and, often the default, strong team orientation and focused approach that makes me ideal for your role.

- Why did you leave your last job? - Answer by not mentioning your last job. Do not discuss your previous manager, the reason you left that is your response and make sure that you put your answer in context of what you are looking to achieve in your career as well as what they are looking for. Be careful about that message that your response can send - sometimes leaving roles for "more challenge" may suggest that you just want more, looking for more money can be seen to be the wrong direction and leaving because of a personal conflict several months later reflects badly on you. If you were made redundant - always discuss the full circumstances to ensure the story reflects reality.

Example: I had been with that company for a 2 years and progression that was available within that working structure during that time. It was time to seek a new challenge and I am ideally seeking structure and different industry and more analytical work. That role being the most analytical and good position in this regard.

- Why do you want to work here? - It is critical that your response to this type of question demonstrates that you have a genuine interest in the role. Business and industry analysis can show that your response has substance. This is where having research that the company and the role will be good for you need to demonstrate that this is not just another interview - but that this is your dream job.

Example: Your company has a reputation for being an industry leader and your structure makes me understand a team oriented, analytical and innovative staff environment as well as my skills and my own values. The role that offers the exciting opportunity to work closely with senior management, to be successful in your environment will be a really of my primary effort to quickly adjust to your working life.
