How To Keyword Research Tips For Students:

Student Guide to Research in the Digital Age Leslie Stebbins, 2005-12-30 One of the most perplexing aspects of research today is what to do when there is too much information on a topic. What then of the librarian charged with teaching new generations to appreciate the search for intellectual wheat especially when the chaff has greater appeal? The key suggests Leslie Stebbins is to impress upon students the importance of good filtering instincts and careful management of search results. At the same time it is equally essential to impress upon them the particular challenges and controversies that accompany research in a digital environment. Chapter one provides a step by step introduction to both research and critical evaluation that can be followed for any assignment. Chapters two through seven focus on specific types of information resources when to use them where to find them and how to evaluate them. Chapter eight offers guidance on how to develop a note taking system cite sources avoid plagiarism and organize references. Students and librarians alike will benefit from Stebbin's suggestions strategies and straightforward examples.

And Action! Kathy Swan, Mark Hofer, 2013-11-12 And Action Directing Documentaries in the Social Studies Classroom provides social studies educators with the background knowledge conceptual understanding and tools necessary to design and facilitate classroom documentary projects in the K-12 social studies classroom. The authors have spent more than ten years in classrooms working collaboratively with teachers to design and research classroom documentary projects. Recognizing the challenges of this kind of work the authors partnered with filmmakers historians educational technologists and classroom teachers with experience in leading documentary projects to refine a production process that more closely mirrors the work of filmmakers. With this book the authors draw on all of these experiences to assist social studies educators to efficiently and effectively structure and assess documentary projects. Educators will learn ways to transition student learning away from digital encyclopedia entries toward a more authentic documentary approach that focuses on disciplined inquiry and the use of evidenced based
