

Proof of Relationship

Date:
Respected Visa Officer,

I [REDACTED], is describing our relationship through this letter.

On [REDACTED] at a family function of [REDACTED] paternal aunt, we saw each other for the first time but it was a casual meeting. Later me and my family went to his aunt's home where another family were also present. We all sat together and started gossiping, during that meeting my father and [REDACTED] father became friends and thereafter on [REDACTED], they invited my family for dinner. During these conversations, they both discussed about many personal matters with each other and decided to make a close bonding with each other's family. They wanted to change this friendship into relationship so they asked about there thought with their wives and both families agreed to this marriage. Then the last decision was pending on me about the relationship.

So, on [REDACTED], we both met at an ice cream parlor for the second time and discussed our matters, dreams, and goals with each other. After that, we connected via phone calls, text messages, and also arranged few meetings together. After a couple of days, [REDACTED] proposed me and asked for marriage as he believed that I am the only one who understands him very well and the girl who is made for him and even I confessed my feelings infomnt of him. Our gossips became longer and then we both got engaged on [REDACTED] in the presence of our families and since then our sweet love story started. We talked on phone calls & texts, met on dinner dates several times, and shopping together and then never looking back. After one month of engagement, we thought to get married because it was difficult for us to live apart. So, finally we both discussed about our decision and arranged the families get together to finalize the marriage date.

We both were happy, as a new chapter of our life was beginning. Our family started the preperation of marriage and finally on [REDACTED] we tied the knot and got married in the presence of our close family, relatives, and friends. It was the best day of our lives.

With the passage of time our bond became stronger and our love became more dense. After spending three years with each other, a new member came in our lives. On [REDACTED] I delivered a baby boy who completed our family. He filled our life with joy and happiness.

Meanwhile, I always wanted to pursue my further studies but due to family responsibilities I was not able to but later I discussed it with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] he supported my decision and suggested to plan my studies for Canada. So I started preparation to study in Canada and got the admission in [REDACTED] for the program of Information Technology program analyst and finally due to god's grace and the support of my loving husband and family
