Introduction

Why Do Bible Study?

The Bible is Inspired by God

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

The word "inspiration" in 2 Timothy 3:16 is in the original Greek theopneustos (theopneustos), which literally means "God-breathed". For Scripture to be breathed by God requires that it originated from God's mouth or that it is the Word of God. Indeed, the term "Word of God" is used synonymously with the Scriptures throughout the Bible (e.g. John 1:1, 14).

The Mechanics of Inspiration

There are numerous theories of how inspiration took place, including the following:

- Verbal inspiration – Human authors were inspired in such a way that God in the same way that a poet might be inspired to write poetry by natural events or conditions.
- Special inspiration – Human authors themselves are inspired by God in the same way God inspires any Christian today through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.
- Conceptual inspiration – God inspired human authors with the general concepts of the message, but left the words and details to the author.
- Verbal inspiration – God inspired human authors with each word, representing every letter.
- Dictated dictation – Human authors just took dictation from God as he spoke.

The best description of the process is found in 2 Peter 1:21, as he describes the process of prophesy being provided to human authors:

For as prophesy was never made by the will of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit speak from God (2 Peter 1:21)

Inspiration means, then, that the authors in writing a verse from God, the human authors were used to speak as from God in the Holy Spirit control their words. This illustrates direct dictation, as if in the same olden days. Furthermore, this illustrates verbal inspiration, as if God is dictating every human utterance word for word, and the authors had no more autonomy than any "talking writing system," which would contradict the authors' position as humans in Jesus and Paul.

This based on both conceptual and verbal inspiration. Both suggest that human authors were involved in the writing, and that the individual permission and will of the authors were through in the process. However, God controlled the human authors to write, and the authors were
