McDorman, Keyuan Zou, Seokwoo Lee, 2019-01-04 Regulation on Navigation of Foreign Vessels Asia Pacific State Practice focuses on one of the most contentious and diverse subject areas of the international law of the sea foreign vessel rights of navigation in national waters Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the law of the sea the book is organized in four parts in accordance with the geography of the Asia Pacific region Northeast Asia Southeast Asia North America and Australasia The volume examines the divergence and uniformity of state practice and legal cultures impacting the legislation concerning oceans and ocean activities International Law for Seagoing Officers, 7th Edition Craig H. Allen Sr., 2022-11-15 The seventh edition of this Blue and Gold Series book brings clarity and context to international law for the seagoing professional This book is the only work that addresses the international law of the sea from the perspective of the United States For those who operate on under and over the sea international law can sometimes be as complex as it is important Written by the same former seagoing officer and maritime law professional who authored the current edition of Farwell's Rules of the Nautical Road this book was designed to bring clarity and context to international law for the seagoing professional Following an introduction to public international law and a short history of the law of the sea the book describes the rules that apply in ports and in the adjacent maritime zones including the territorial sea exclusive economic zone archipelagic waters and the high seas A highlight of the book are the chapters that focus on subjects of greatest interest to the seagoing professional including military and intelligence activities in the maritime domain maritime law enforcement activities and the use of force at sea The appendices include the text of the 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea and the U S Senate s understandings of key provisions of the convention Whether an academy cadet a midshipman a seasoned commanding officer or master mariner readers of this thorough and timely book will be rewarded with a far greater understanding of the international laws that govern ships and mariners at sea New in this edition Over a dozen new cases by courts and arbitration panels interpreting UNCLOS including the South China Sea dispute between the Philippines and China Coverage of Commercial Seafarer protections under Maritime Labor Convention Global Responses to the Mediterranean Migrant Crisis Coverage of the law protecting our vital submarine cables Expanded coverage of unmanned and autonomous vessels and aircraft Coverage on vessel health safety and quarantine measures applicable in the COVID 19 Pandemic A new chapter surveying issues the U S Senate should consider in any decision regarding ratification of UNCLOS A new appendix setting out the U S Navy and Coast Guard policies on sovereign immunity of government vessels and aircraft

Marine Protected Areas Network in the South China Sea Vu Hai Dang,2014-01-09 The once pristine and rich marine environment of the South China Sea is degrading at an alarming rate due to the rapid socioeconomic development of the region Despite this and due mainly to complicated sovereignty and maritime disputes coastal States have not been able to develop effective regional cooperation to safeguard the shared marine environment Marine Protected Areas Network in the South China Sea discusses legal and political measures to support the development of a network of marine protected areas in the South China Sea Such a network if properly developed would not only help to protect the marine environment and resources of the region but also contribute to decreasing the tension among its coastal States These measures are suggested in accordance with international law based on the specific geopolitical context of the South China Sea region and take into consideration experiences in developing regional networks of marine protected areas from other marine regions

Area-Based Management of Shipping Aldo Chircop,Floris Goerlandt,Ronald Pelot,Claudio Aporta,2024-06-17 This open access book fills a gap in the literature on shipping in a number of cross cutting fields including marine transportation law and policy law of the sea Indigenous rights marine environmental management and risk and safety studies Moreover the book includes a focus on the consideration of Indigenous rights in shipping a topic of emerging importance There are to our knowledge no directly competing titles with the same interdisciplinary approach to conceptualize understand and describe best practices for area based management approaches There are however related titles which cover some aspects of area based management usually from narrow disciplinary perspectives Area based management in the governance of shipping has become a useful and effective approach to promote maritime safety maritime security and pollution prevention and to mitigate the adverse impacts of shipping on the marine environment and coastal communities Based on the results of a research project and a major workshop convened at Dalhousie University in Canada this book consists of multidisciplinary studies and analyses of major issues pertaining to area based management in shipping from a comparative perspective but with the principal focus on Canada The book contains both theoretical and empirical contributions

Governance of Arctic Shipping Robert C. Beckman, Tore Henriksen, Kristine Dalaker Kraabel, Erik J. Molenaar, J. Ashley Roach, 2017-08-21 Governance of Arctic Shipping Balancing Rights and Interests of Arctic States and User States examines potential cooperative mechanisms for balancing rights and interests of Arctic States and user States in light of experiences with Southeast Asian cooperative mechanisms This volume analyzes the applicable international regulatory framework with special attention to the roles of the International Maritime Organization and the Arctic Council The rights interests positions and practice of Arctic coastal States are compared with those of user States with particular emphasis on China Japan and South Korea The final chapters analyze cooperative arrangements in Southeast Asia in order to explore if these could act as models to enhance cooperation among coastal States and user States in the Arctic

Specially Protected Marine Areas in the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) Thomas Dux, 2011 This thesis examines the question of what States are legally empowered to do under international law when they seek to protect certain areas of their Exclusive Economic Zone EEZ In this context the regulation of shipping and other human activities under the Law of the Sea Convention and in particular the regime for special areas under Article 211 6 of the Convention are addressed Global and regional instruments containing mechanisms to protect specific areas are discussed and relevant State practice is considered with a view to possible implications on customary international law Finally guidance is given as to what States can practically do to protect specific areas of their EEZ for environmental reason Series Schriften zum See und Hafenrecht Vol 18

Excessive Maritime Claims J. Ashley Roach, 2021-03-01 State practice in the law of the sea has continued to evolve since publication of the 3rd edition of Excessive Maritime Claims in 2012 In this 4th edition J Ashley Roach has brought the text up to date particularly as to the provisions relating to the balance of navigational rights and freedoms with the interests of coastal and island States Of particular interest are the more detailed explanations of the phrase freedom of navigation the expanded material on baselines and on the practice of archipelagic States the revisions of the material on the continental shelf on marine data collection on submarine cables and pipelines and US Ocean Policy A new chapter has been added on islands and other maritime features This edition is dedicated to Dr Robert W Smith the premier marine geographer
