The Report: Myanmar 2018 , Although recent GDP growth has moderated from the double digit highs of the early 2000s it has remained above 5% for more than 25 years supported by robust natural resource exports steady foreign direct investment FDI rising incomes and private consumption and rapid expansion of the industrial and services sectors External headwinds and internal conflict have dampened the near term outlook however the country's long term economic outlook remains positive with rising investment in transport and power infrastructure expected to drive GDP and industrial growth supported by a sharp increase in personal incomes and consumer spending Vietnam Economic News , 2012-08-28

The Business Year: Mozambique 2020/21 , 2021-01-29 This 144 page publication aims to provide a platform for the country's decision makers at a time of global uncertainty and act as a guide for investors looking seriously at the African economy It covers finance energy mining industry IT and telecoms transport and logistics construction real estate agro industry health education and tourism The Report: Papua New Guinea 2016 Oxford Business Group, 2016-09-19 In terms of investment Papua New Guinea's geographic location geopolitical importance and abundance of commodities as well as the success of the PNG Liquefied Natural Gas project have helped it become a favoured destination for Chinese and Japanese ventures with expectations of further foreign direct investment FDI going forward particularly in the primary sector However PNG remains a challenging place for international participants and while high level strategically important projects are likely to proceed smoothly smaller more entrepreneurial ventures may face difficulty To improve this reputation the country is trying to boost transparency and efficiency in business transactions though new initiatives under way could see it adopt more protectionist policies thereby going against the tenets of liberal economics it has traditionally embraced The Business

Year: Angola 2024 , Angola s economy stood at the crossroads of transformation throughout 2023 with officials confronting the challenges that have swept the globe of late including inflationary pressure while attempting to draw up plans for more sustainable development The country s fortunes remain tightly intertwined with those of the oil and gas sector which continues to represent a sizeable portion of GDP This renders the country susceptible to the undulations of global oil prices something that will need to change longer term It is against this backdrop that we teamed up with AIPEX and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Angola CCIA to produce this 170 page publication featuring interviews with business leaders from every major sector of the economy as well as a range of articles and analysis
