Teaching My Mother how to Give Birth Warsan Shire, 2011 Arts Council England Page facing title page Teaching My Mother how to Give Birth Audre Lorde, 2011 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Anglophone Literature and Migration Nicoletta Vallorani, Simona Bertacco, William Boelhower, 2025-10-16 Focusing on a significant 70 year period as a climactic phase of displacement the book investigates the role of literature in producing new modes of representing and understanding migration in a global context Globally felt and reported as a geographical sociological anthropological and historical phenomenon migration has produced an unprecedented corpus of literary narratives that demands to be approached through its own set of cross disciplinary critical approaches This Handbook explores tales of migration via a systematic study of the large corpus of Anglophone literary texts that have been written by migrant authors and or on the topic of migration between 1946 and 2016 from the start of the United Nations International Migration Report to the first year in which the number of displaced people reached the level of the Second World War marking a new phase in global migrations Given the dominance of English as a world language often used by writers who are not native speakers the volume covers Anglophone writing providing a substantially representative corpus that includes texts from or about Europe Africa North and Central America and the South Asia and Pacific region Starting from a critical approach that is inherently interdisciplinary authors consider the notion of the border and how it has changed over time show how traditional literary genres have morphed and hybridized to become suitable expressive tools for the new stories of migration reflect on how the movement across borders and countries creates migrant identities that are not only linguistic but invests all aspects of one s life and worldview and includes authors voices a small but representative group to both justify and test the critical approaches proposed Vulnerability and Resilience Jione Havea, 2020-01-28 In Vulnerability and Resilience vulnerability is not the final word Rather resilience provides the cutting edge and living breath in the stories of subjects who are vulnerable And they have many stories stories of being trapped in bodies teachings and or situations that make them and others like them vulnerable to discrimination hatred and rejection stories of being trapped because of their bodies theologies and or cultures and stories of being trapped for no good reason For subjects who are vulnerable life is like a maze of traps and stories of resilience keep them going The contributors to Vulnerability and Resilience refuse to be trapped At the intersection of body and liberation theologies they tell their stories in the hope that they will expose cultures that make individuals and communities vulnerable and that those stories will encourage vulnerable subjects to be resilient and bring change to theological institutions that conserve vulnerability Because of the location of the contributors the Americas Africa Asia Europe Caribbean and Oceania this book is a testimony that vulnerability is present all over the world and that resilience is a liberating alternative Postcolonial Poetics Elleke Boehmer, 2018-06-27 Postcolonial Poetics is about how we read postcolonial and world literatures today and about how the structures of that writing shape our reading The book s
