WHAT IS ALLEGORY?

- An allegory is a form of art, whether that be a picture or a story which gives us its meaning through the use of symbols, many people would consider allegory to be an extended type of metaphor. When used as a literary device, a writer may use an allegory in order to convey a message based on morals, history, politics, spirituality, and other such subjects.
- The actual word allegory derives from ancient Greek and is translated to mean 'implying something' and this translation further helps us understand its function.
- When used as a form of figurative language, the allegory can make a useful in addition to things such as motivational speeches, informative speeches or spoken lessons because it is used to convey meaning in a more understandable
