the Development of Democratic Citizenship in Europe Andrea Raiker, Matti Rautiainen, Blerim Saqipi, 2019-11-21 This book uses international collaboration between nine European countries to explore how teacher education systems across Europe perceive and act upon devolving democracy and democratic citizenship Understanding these countries cultural approaches to individual and national priorities in education is essential in perceiving similarities and differences in the meaning of democracy The book offers debate on the prospects for teacher education and the development of democratic citizenship in Europe based on historical political economic and cultural contexts and the Council of Europe s CoE competences for democratic citizenship With critical analysis and evaluation around the common theme of teacher education and its role in developing democratic citizenship the book provides awareness and understanding of how teacher education responds to the Council of Europe s CoE conceptual model of competences for democratic culture 20 competences categorized as Values Attitudes Skills and Knowledge and Critical Understanding are defined so they can be taught to enable learners to practice them in their daily lives as democratic citizens This book will be of key interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of teacher education educational policy and politics and citizenship education      Social Science
