Social media has traversed far greater heights than simply being a medium for user-generated content. Today it's a tool for consumer empowerment; we all witness big conglomerates being brought to their knees by that one dissatisfied tweet or widely shared post and a gratifying brand-consumer partnership. Even companies that have long been dismissing social media as frivolous and flippant have started taking note of its benefits. They've realized that social media is not limited to games and light-hearted opinion polls, which are also hugely successful in creating affable brands, but can involve more serious discussions and insights that are invaluable when it comes to building strong brands. Unlike traditional marketing mediums, social media doesn't swallow a huge chunk of your advertising and promotion budget. You don't need to create cost-intensive and ineffectual marketing plans that leave you broke. All you need is some creativity, perceptiveness, and an intuitive understanding about your audience's needs. More than sharp business acumen, you need a human touch. Social media gives your brand a human angle without breaking the bank. Currently, social media marketing is the most powerful tool that can help businesses to reach customers and prospects, whether small or not.
