Richard Hollis was the graphic designer for London's Whitechapel Art Gallery in the years 1969-73 and 1978-85. In this second period under the directorship of Nicholas Serota, the gallery came to the forefront of the London art scene with pioneering exhibitions of work by Georg Baselitz, Anselm Kiefer, Joseph Cornell, Philip Guston, Frida Kahlo, and Tina Modotti among others. Hollis's posters, catalogues, and leaflets conveyed this sense of discovery as well as being models of practical graphic design. The pressures of time and a small budget enhanced the urgency and richness of their effects. Christopher Wilson's monograph is an exemplary examination of a body of graphic design. This book matches the spirit of the work it describes: active, passionate, aesthetically refined, and committed to getting things right. As in Hollis's work, design here is a verb as much as a noun. Report of the British and Foreign School Society, British and Foreign School Society, 1892
