Time in "Tristram Shandy" Markus Widmer, 2008-11 Essay from the year 1998 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 A University of Aberdeen English Department course Tristram Shandy 4 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Metafiction according to Patricia Waugh consists of the construction of a fictional illusion as in traditional realism and the laying bare of that illusion Tristram Shandy I will argue in this essay undermines fictional illusion by foregrounding the most fundamental set of all narrative conventions those concerning the representations of time Waugh 70 I will exemplify this by trying to apply a conventional set of narratological terms to Tristram Shandy I will show that these terms which are based on conventional narratives are neither exhaustive nor distinctive when one tries to use them for Tristram Shandy Narrative fiction Rimmon Kenan states has three main aspects story text and narration Story designates the narrated events abstracted from their disposition in the text and reconstructed in their chronological order together with the participants in these events Whereas story is a succession of events text is a spoken or written discourse which undertakes their telling Time is essential for all of these three aspects as will become clear in my discussion Time in itself following Rimmon Kenan can be viewed in three respects order duration and frequency p 46 I will focus on the first two aspects since they are more essential to the novel than frequency 4 Finally I will discuss whether after my discussion of Tristram Shandy's time structure one can conclude that the novel is a metafiction according to Waugh's definition of the term psychic bridge between mysticism and postmodernism portraying human consciousness in a bind of forever being trapped in language     Rewriting Reality Allyson Fiddler, 1994-05-11 This first systematic study of the controversial Austrian feminist writer Elfriede Jelinek offers an extensive survey and analysis of Jelinek's major texts and a discussion of the literary techniques which characterise her writing Background contextual information on historical and literary developments is provided to help the reader gain a better understanding of Jelinek's writing and her place within current international debates on feminism and literary theory     Symbolism Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2005
