World Civilizations 4th Edition:

World Civilizations Peter N. Stearns, Michael Adas, Stuart B. Schwartz, 2001 The primary goal of World Civilizations is to present a TRULY GLOBAL HISTORY one that both discusses the development of the world's leading civilizations and also emphasizes the major stages in the interactions among different peoples and societies World Civilizations examines all the world's civilizations including those in the Western tradition but also those civilizations sometimes neglected in world history texts for example the nomadic societies of Asia Latin America and the nations and states of the Pacific Rim World Civilizations balances this discussion of independent developments in all the world's major civilizations with comparative analysis of the results of international contact World Civilizations organizes its presentation of global history into SIX COHERENT TIME PERIODS with each period defined by the new and parallel patterns that evolved among all or most civilizations during the particular era The six periods correspond to the six parts of the book Within each part the authors identify specific themes that characterize common experiences or common forces in individual societies as well as the new kinds and patterns of global contacts that emerged during the era Thus for example Part I of the book discusses the developmental stage of world history including the rise of agriculture and the development of civilization Part II examines the classical era in global history an era marked by the integration of large regions and diverse groups of people through overarching cultural and political systems Subsequent parts of the book continue the emphasis on geographic shifts and the intensification of contact among civilizations

N. Stearns, Michael B. Adas, Stuart B. Schwartz, Marc Jason Gilbert, 2006-08-30 For today's busy student we've created a new line of highly portable books at affordable prices. Each title in the Books a la Carte Plus program features the exact same content from our traditional textbook in a convenient notebook ready loose leaf version allowing students to take only what they need to class. As an added bonus each Books a la Carte Plus edition is accompanied by an access code to all of the resources found in one of our best selling multimedia products. Best of all Our Books a la Carte Plus titles cost less than a used textbook. The primary goal of World Civilizations is to present a truly global history since the development of agriculture and herding to the present. Using a unique periodization this book divides the main periods of human history according to changes in the nature and extent of global contacts. This global world history text emphasizes the major stages in the interactions among different peoples and societies while also assessing the development of major societies. Presenting social and cultural as well as political and economic aspects the book examines key civilizations in world history. World Civilizations balances this discussion of independent developments in the world's major civilizations with comparative analysis of the results of global contact.

The Trouble with Textbooks Gary A. Tobin, Dennis R. Ybarra, 2008-01-01 Our elementary middle and high school teaching about Jews, Judaism and Israel is driven by textbook misstatements about Jewish theology, social structure and the history of Israel that comprise an unsavory picture of Jews and Israel. This book will be an extremely valuable reference tool for educators and members of the public interested in religion and the Middle East.
