

HOW TO BUILD A WORLD

Where are we?

- Earth?
- Another planet?

What does the area look like?

- Give us a physical description of the region(s)

Are there dominant cultures we're going to meet?

- Help us understand the norms

Who inhabits this world?

- Do they speak the same language?
- Are they the same species?

Who rules this world?

- Is there a person or part of society that dominates?

What is technology like here?

- How advanced is this culture?

Is there a dominant religion?

- What are their belief systems?

How does the world affect the story?

- Both physically and emotionally?

Does the physical world change or arc?

- Has the culture or ruling power changed?

World Building:

Patricia A. McKillip and the Art of Fantasy World-Building Audrey Isabel Taylor, 2017-08-11 From wondrous fairy lands to nightmarish hellscapes the elements that make fantasy worlds come alive also invite their exploration This first book length study of critically acclaimed novelist Patricia A McKillip s lyrical other worlds analyzes her characters environments and legends and their interplay with genre expectations The author gives long overdue critical attention to McKillip s work and demonstrates how a broader understanding of world building enables a deeper appreciation of her fantasies

Reimagining Adult Education as World Building Aliko Nicolaidis, Ahreum Lim, Neal Herr, Trisha Barefield, 2024-03-18 Reimagining Adult Education as World Building offers a new way of thinking about adult education by re envisaging how adult education works It explores how the process of world building or the invention of a new world or a set of concepts can be translated into actual and feasible action when turning towards complex real life problems Cultivating contexts where adult educators can become change agents who recognize that the individual and community are intricately entangled demands that educators grow new capacities make new tools develop thicker networks and cultivate intentional links amongst each other to foster ecologies of transformation This book shows how educators can create an ecology or environment for transformative thinking where students can learn to collaborate and use world building tools to create new responses to current issues It begins by explaining the philosophical underpinnings of world building and the tools that translate pragmatic imagination into scaffolds for individual and collective capacity building It also illustrates how the worldbuilding protocol makes a difference in adult learning and how this pedagogical tool introduces the ecological approach to adult education Each chapter explores a practical case study showing how learners have applied worldbuilding tools to complex challenges Showing how to apply the world building protocol in a classroom setting this edited collection will be valuable to Adult Education scholars researchers practitioners and learning facilitators

Collaborative Worldbuilding for Writers and Gamers Trent Hergenrader, 2018-10-18 The digital technologies of the 21st century are reshaping how we experience storytelling More than ever before storylines from the world s most popular narratives cross from the pages of books to the movie theatre to our television screens and in comic books series Plots intersect and intertwine allowing audiences many different entry points to the narratives In this sometimes bewildering array of stories across media one thing binds them together their large scale fictional world Collaborative Worldbuilding for Writers and Gamers describes how writers can co create vast worlds for use as common settings for their own stories Using the worlds of Star Wars Lord of the Rings A Game of Thrones and Dungeons Dragons as models this book guides readers through a step by step process of building sprawling fictional worlds complete with competing social forces that have complex histories and yet are always evolving It also shows readers how to populate a catalog with hundreds of unique people places and things that grow organically from their world which become a rich repository of story making potential The companion website
