of Wilfred Cantwell Smith* Ellen Bradshaw Aitken,Arvind Sharma,2017-03-15 This is the first work to address the legacy of

Wilfred Cantwell Smith 1916-2000 whose intellectual and institutional contributions helped shape the field of religious studies in the latter half of the twentieth century As a young scholar Smith taught Indian and Islamic history in Lahore for several years and witnessed the partition of India Upon his return to North America he obtained his PhD at Princeton University before embarking upon a long and distinguished career He founded the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University and served as director of the Center for the Study of World Religions at Harvard University Smith emphasized the place of the scholarly study of Islam in the Western academy long before Islam occupied its current position at the center of global politics challenged the notion of monolithic world religions and argued for the importance of dialogical processes and a personalist approach to the study of religion Contributors to this volume many of whom were Smith's students provide a wide ranging exploration of his influence and legacy From Treaty Peoples to Treaty Nation Greg Poelzer, Ken S.

Coates, 2015-07-28 Canada is a country founded on relationships and agreements between Indigenous peoples and newcomers Although recent court cases have upheld Aboriginal title rights the cooperative spirit of the treaties is being lost as Canadians engage in endless arguments about First Nations issues Each new court decision adds fuel to the debate raging between those who want to see an end to special Aboriginal rights and those who demand a return to Aboriginal sovereignty Greg Poelzer and Ken Coates breathe new life into these debates by looking at approaches that have failed and succeeded in the past and offering all Canadians from policy makers to concerned citizens realistic steps forward Rather than getting bogged down in debates on Aboriginal rights they highlight Aboriginal success stories and redirect the conversation to a place of common ground Upholding equality of economic opportunity as a guiding principle they argue that the road ahead is clear if all Canadians take up their responsibilities as treaty peoples Canada will become a leader among treaty nations
