Mining for Change John Page, Finn Tarp, 2020-02-13 For a growing number of countries in Africa the discovery and exploitation of natural resources is a great opportunity but one accompanied by considerable risks Countries dependent on oil gas and mining have tended to have weaker long run growth higher rates of poverty and greater income inequality than less resource abundant economies For these resource producing economies relative prices make it more difficult to diversify into activities outside of the resource sector limiting structural change Mining for Change Natural Resources and Industry in Africa presents research undertaken to understand how better management of the revenues and opportunities associated with natural resources can accelerate diversification and structural change in Africa It begins with essays on managing the boom the construction sector and linking industry to the major issues that frame the question of how to use natural resources for structural change It reports the main research results for five countries Ghana Mozambique Uganda Tanzania and Zambia Each country study covers managing the boom the construction sector and linking industry to the resource Mining for Change argues that good policy can make a difference and sets out ideas for policy change and widening the options for structural change An open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC SA 3 0 IGO licence

Politics of Change in Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring Md. Muddassir Quamar, 2022-12-29 A decade since the eruption of Arab Spring protests in the Middle East and North Africa the region continues to confront the primary causes of the popular disenchantment including economic deprivation bad governance corruption and limited avenues for political expression Democratisation the buzzword in 2011 has given way to debates around conflict management and resolution Simultaneously there are mounting economic challenges throughout the region that have been aggravated by the COVID 19 pandemic But there are some silver linings such as a focus on reforms greater scrutiny against corruption demand for better governance and awareness regarding women empowerment and rights of minorities The volume Politics of Change in the Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring A Lost Decade commemorates the ten years of the eruption of Arab Spring protests It captures some of the prevailing political economic strategic and social issues in MENA through thematic or country specific essays that explore the ongoing transformations and underline how despite the hopelessness the MENA societies have made progress on various fronts Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i.e. development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies

Governance Feminism Janet Halley, Prabha Kotiswaran, Rachel Rebouché, Hila Shamir, 2019-03-26 An interdisciplinary multifaceted look at feminist engagements with governance across the global North and global South Governance Feminism Notes from the Field brings together nineteen chapters from leading feminist scholars and activists to critically describe and assess contemporary feminist engagements with state and state like power Gathering examples from North America South America Europe Asia and the Middle East it complements and expands on the companion volume Governance Feminism An Introduction Its chapters argue that governance feminism GF is institutionally diverse and globally distributed emerging from traditional sites of state power as well as from various forms of governance and operating at the grassroots level in the private sector in civil society and in international relations The book begins by confronting the key role that crime and punishment play in GFeminist projects Here contributors explore the ideological and political conditions under which this branch of GF became so robust and rethink the carceral turn Other chapters speak to another face of GFeminism feminists finding in mundane and seemingly unspectacular bureaucratic tools leverage to bring about change in policy and governance practices Several contributions highlight the political strategic and ethical challenges that feminists and LGBT activists must negotiate to play on the governmental field The book concludes with a focus on feminist interventions in postcolonial legal and political orders looking at new policy spaces opened up by conflict postconflict and occupation Providing a clear cross cutting critical lens through which to map developments in feminist governance around the world Governance Feminism Notes from the Field makes sense of the costs and benefits of current feminist realities to reimagine feminist futures Contributors Libby Adler Northeastern U Aziza Ahmed Northeastern U Elizabeth Bernstein Barnard College Amy J Cohen Ohio State U Karen Engle U of Texas at Austin Jacob Gersen Harvard U Leigh Goodmark U of Maryland Aeyal Gross Tel Aviv U Aya Gruber U of Colorado Boulder Janet Halley Harvard U Rema Hammami Birzeit U Palestine Vanja Hamzi U of London Isabel Cristina Jaramillo Sierra Prabha Kotiswaran King s College London Maleiha Malik King s College London Vasuki Nesiah New York U Dianne Otto Melbourne Law School Helen Reece Darren Rosenblum Pace U Jeannie Suk Gersen Harvard U Mariana Valverde U of Toronto

Competition Law and Collusion in Public Procurement Penelope Giosa,2025-08-22

This book examines infringements of competition law in public procurement settings evaluating the latest European Procurement Directive 2014 24 EU to examine to what extent its provisions facilitate or deter collusion during specific award procedures Public contracts account for a significant proportion of EU expenditure In sectors such as energy transport social protection and the provision of health or education services public authorities are the main purchasers It is important to ensure that public contracts are awarded in an open fair and transparent manner that enables domestic and non domestic firms to compete on an equal basis with the aim of improving the quality and lowering the price of purchases made by public authorities This book assesses the competition law enforcement mechanisms that competition regulators bring to the area of public procurement in the attempt to deter bid rigging It analyzes key tools for the public and private enforcement of competition law in the domain of public contracts such as the leniency programme damages claims for bid rigging and the whistle blower programme The book uses auction theory as benchmark to assess the risk of collusion in the context of procurement procedures and techniques Offering a holistic analysis informed by research it makes recommendations for better design set up and management of public tenders without distorting competition Highlighting the need to make use of competition law enforcement mechanisms in the battle against collusion in public procurement it identifies ways in which the procurement process can be improved to reduce and prevent bid rigging The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of competition law public procurement and EU law Engineering and Mining Journal ,1891 Public-Private Partnerships in Emerging Economies Augustine Edobor Arimoro,2020-10-29 Over the years a shortage of funds has resulted in a huge deficit in government budgets for infrastructure especially in developing economies It is no longer feasible for governments to bear the entire burden of funding public infrastructure Given that an inadequate supply of public infrastructure poses a challenge for the economic development of any country partnerships with the private sector to fund public infrastructure procurement has started to be relied on as an alternative to traditional public procurement Public Private Partnerships are an arrangement that allow private entities to fund design manage and operate public infrastructure for a term in exchange for the payment of tolls by users or the government may well be the solution to the infrastructure crisis in many developing economies This book examines the role of law in the adoption implementation and regulation of Public Private Partnership in selected developing economies including Brazil India Nigeria and South Africa to address how to deal with overlapping laws and how the law can protect assets invested in PPP in order to attract private sector interests in infrastructure financing in developing market showing how law can be used to create sustain and promote PPP frameworks that take into account local circumstances in developing economies Gale Directory of Databases ,1993 Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich,1999 Documentation Abstracts ,1982 Ulrich's Periodicals Directory ,1989 Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print 1993 Bowker Editorial Staff,1993-02 Congressional Record United States.
