

In consequence of his decision, I was in due course placed in the third, or lowest, division of the Fourth or bottom, Form. The names of the new boys were printed in the school list in alphabetical order and as my correct name, Spencer Churchill, began with an 'S', I gained no more advantage from the alphabet than from the wider sphere of letters. I was in fact only two from the bottom of the whole school and these two, I regret to say, disappeared almost immediately through illness or some other cause.

The Harrow custom of calling the roll is different from that of Eton. At Eton the boys stand in a cluster and lift their hats when their names are called. At Harrow they file past a Master in the school yard and answer one by one. My position was therefore revealed in its somewhat invidious humility.
